ROTARY TODAY

JULY 19, 2017

Hello Rotarians!

Our meeting today is one of both great interest and importance to our community. Our guests, Ariel Anglin and Reita Babek, will be speaking to us about the TSET Healthy Living Program that serves the Cleveland County communities. They work closely with our schools as well as other community organizations. One of the big topics they address is tobacco use.

Welcome, Ariel & Reita!

Quick Little Comments...

In the peacetime years that followed World War II, Senator Richard Russell Jr. of Georgia made a bizarre proposal to the news media: The United States should annex England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales – at the time, the whole of Great Britain – as four new states. Why? The British were ravaged by the war, and the U.S. needed some strategically located sites in Europe. Russell reasoned that the U.S. getting military bases and the U.K. receiving an influx of American revenue would be good for both countries. The British government quickly dismissed the idea, noting that Russell's home state of Georgia still owed England money it had borrowed during the Civil War.
