

The Four-Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Moore Happenings

Making a Difference Here & There

Bears Repeating

Many of us have a to do or bucket list. Here is envisioned for one of our Founding Fathers, Benjamin Franklin:

1. Lightning rod
2. Heating stove made out of iron
3. Shoes that help me swim like a fish
4. Get my GED
5. Some kind of musical instrument. Glass drum? Glass guitar?
6. Glasses that can be worn for near and far
7. Go skydiving!
8. A place to share books and all kinds of other stuff
9. Fire-putting-outer organization thing
10. A new nation
11. Prove lightning/electricity during storm with key, Hula-Hoop, and/or kite
12. Live in France
13. Internet

Care to guess which items Ben crossed off the list? Feel like a slacker now? (Hint: He crossed off all but 3!)

The IRS combines two of the things we hate most in life: someone taking our money and math!

One of my biggest fears is that I'll marry into a family that does 5Ks on holidays.

If you are in charge of a program for a meeting, please send the info no later than the Friday before that meeting to: ce8603@gmail.com

IT'S WEDNESDAY! JUNE 20, 2018

Dean Joseph Harroz, Jr. is Dean and Director of the University of Oklahoma College of Law, University Vice President, and the Fenelon Boesche Chair of Law. He earned a B. A. in Economics with a minor in Zoology from the University of Oklahoma, graduating Phi Beta Kappa. He earned his Juris Doctorate from Georgetown University Law Center.

Harroz served as Legislative Director and Legal Counsel to then-U. S. Senator David Boren and later joined the law firm of Crowe and Dunlevy, working in the area of commercial litigation. In 1994, he came to OU as Vice President for External Affairs. He then served twelve years as General Counsel to the Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma, the longest to serve in that role in the University's history. Prior to becoming Dean, Harroz was president of a publicly traded healthcare company. For the past twenty years, he has taught at OU Law, primarily in the area of employment law.

After being named Dean of OU Law in 2010, Harroz began guiding the Law School down a path of continued growth and excellence.

Some Funny Words

Recent restaurant reviews...watch where you eat!

Breaking bread should not mean you have to use the side of the table.

The only way the tables could have been closer together would be to stack them.

The duck was tired, tough, and took 90 minutes to arrive. It must have been a long flight.

The chef keeps renaming and relocating the restaurant, like it's a member of the Federal Witness Protection Program.

The waiter repeatedly called my aging parents 'coach' and 'darling.'

Overpriced and undergood.

Our friend and her 4 year old son were standing in line at a fast-food restaurant when in walked a man covered in tatoos. The boy turned to him and said, "Looks like somebody got into the markers."

Our funny tidbits this week are from the pages of Readers Digest.
