

The Four-Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Moore Happenings

Making a Difference Here & There

Bears Repeating

Why should a person join Rotary? Here are four elements to consider:

1. Friendship. Rotary offers the opportunity to meet people in a semi-social environment and also achieve good things.
2. Personal development. Maybe one doesn't enjoy speaking in public. Being involved in Rotary means that you're encouraged in a friendly environment to get experience speaking, running meetings, motivating people, all that sort of thing. Your Rotarian colleagues are not going to fault you for a simple mistake. You get practice, you improve, and you do it better.
3. Business development. Rotary is good for business. Why should we shy away from promoting this?
4. The chance to make a difference in the world. Perhaps the most important. If one person is asked to eradicate polio, their ability is somewhat limited. But when working with 1.2 million people of like mind and with people like Bill and Melinda Gates donating funds to help achieve this objective, the opportunity for success is are greater.

These words are paraphrased from an article entitled "Serious Fun" by President Elect Ian Riseley. You can read the entire article in the March 2017 edition of The Rotarian.

If you are in charge of a program for a meeting,
please send the info no later than the Friday before that meeting to:

Happy Wednesday

May 10, 2017

Hello Rotarians!

Our program today brings us the noted journalist and author,

John J. Dwyer.

*After a varied career in both print and broadcast journalism, John returned to Oklahoma in 2006. This was at the urging of both his family and the Oklahoma Historical Society.
Upon his return he began work on The Oklahomans, with volume 1 being published and volume 2 scheduled to be published in 2018. John and his wife Grace live in Norman and John serves as Adjunct Professor of History and Ethics at Southern Nazarene University.
Welcome, John!*

Quick Little Comments...

Do unto others as you would have them
do unto you is not only a moral imperative, it is common sense.

I've learned that ultimately "takers" lose and "givers" win.

Procrastination is the fault most people put off correcting.

Ah, being young is beautiful, but being old is comfortable.

The indispensable first step to getting the things you want out of life is this:
decide what you want.
...Ben Stein

Something to put on your calendar:
The next Rotary After Hours will be on Tuesday, May 16th from 5:30-7:30 pm at Volare on Campus Corner in Norman. This should be a great time for meeting old and new friends in Rotary! There will be a Food and Cash Bar available.
Should be lots of fun!
