Making a Difference Here & There

Bears Repeating

The 21st Century is just not what it was cracked up to be. I would have liked to see us control the weather as opposed to being able to make a phone call without having the cord.

My sister didn't do as well on her driver's ed test as she'd hoped. I might have had something to do with how she completed this sentence:

"When the _____ is dead, the car won't start."

She wrote: "Driver."

After catching her five-year-old son Lucas trying to pull a fast one, his mother demanded, "Do you think I have idiot written on my forehead?"

Lucas answered: "I don't know, I can't read."

A client called my help desk saying she couldn't send an e-mail. When I was done troubleshooting the problem, she interrupted me to ask, "Wait a minute, do I type @ in lower- or uppercase?"

IT'S WEDNESDAY!

MAY 8, 2018

Another wonderful Wednesday is upon us!

So, what's happening at Rotary?

Well, this is a meeting that will bring us information we all need to know.

What is it? Don't know!

Kathy Gillette is providing a video for us today to provide the answer.

Don't you love a surprise?

May is here, so let's all be weather alert & wise!

Some Silly Medical Words

As I leaned in to check her eyes, my older patient got a little frisky. "You remind me of my third husband," she said coyly. "Third husband?" I asked.

"How many have you had?"

"Two."

Patient: Doctor, I slipped in the grocery store and really hurt myself.

Doctor: Where did you get hurt?

Patient: Aisle six.

During surgery, my fellow resident bumped heads with the surgeon. "Ah, Dr. Jones, a meeting of the minds," he said, laughing it off. The surgeon mumbled, "Yes, and I felt so along."

When I went to the ER to have a painful ingrown toenail removed, I was a complete basket case - sobbing, gagging, petrified... the works. But my doctor knew how to calm me down. "Don't worry about a thing," he assured me. "I just looked up how to perform this operation on YouTube."
