Always forgive your enemies. Nothing annoys them more.

Points to ponder:

My 14 year old made fun of me this morning because I had to go to work while he had a snow day. So I changed the Wi-Fi password.

My kids wanted to know what it's like to be a mom, so I woke them up at 2 a.m. to let them know my sock came off.

Not sure if I should be more concerned about the son who locked me out of my bedroom today or the one who showed me how to pick the lock.

I didn't realize how good I am on the phone until I found out my call to customer service may be used for training purposes.

ROTARY TODAY

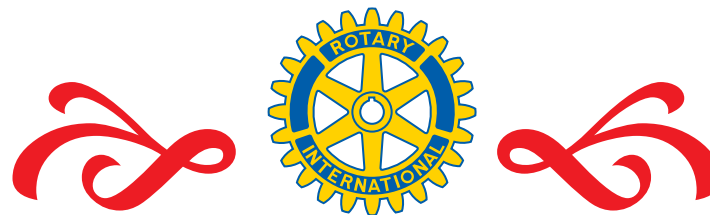

OCTOBER 4, 2017

Hello Rotarians! Are you ready for a great day?

We are hearing today from Mr. Travis Humphrey of Bethesda, Inc. in Norman.

For the past thirty years Bethesda has helped families deal with the repercussions of sexual abuse.

Travis Humphrey is a lifelong resident of Oklahoma with a Bachelors Degree from OU and a Masters of Divinity from Oklahoma Christian University. For the last three years he has been the Executive Director of Bethesda and works to expand its mission of healing the trauma of sexual abuse through therapy, education and prevention. Mr. Humphrey is proud that Bethesda was a finalist for the 2017 Oklahoma Non-profits of Excellence Award.

Quick Little Comments...

Just some silliness...

We were tearing down an old three-seater outhouse when my neighbor asked if she could have the single-plank, three-hole outhouse seat. I said sure. Six months later, she invited me to her home. There she showed off her newly designed family room, complete with a single-plank, three-hole picture frame featuring her three grandchildren.

I bought one of those tapes to teach you Spanish in your sleep. During the night, the tape skipped. Now I can only stutter in Spanish.
