

The Four-Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Moore Happenings

Making a Difference Here & There

Bears Repeating

The day started out as an ordinary day at the Pearly Gates. St. Peter was at his desk when he looked up to see a cat and a mouse patiently waiting for entry into Heaven. St. Peter checked them out and began his welcome speech. "You guys should find it easy to locate everything you need. Take a look around for a week or two and then come see me to let me know if there's anything you need."

So, after a week the mouse came to see St. Peter. "Everything is just great here! But it's so big and I'm so little. I can't get around to everything." St. Peter thought a moment and brought out a mouse sized pair of roller skates. "This is something that might really help all your mouse brethren up here. I'm going to send them to all the mice." The mouse was really happy and left of his new skates. Next week, the cat showed up at St. Peter's desk. He looked really happy and told St. Peter about the things he loved in Heaven. "And you know, just when I didn't think it could get any better, I found that Heaven has Meals on Wheels!"

ROTARY TODAY

SEPTEMBER 13, 2017

Hello Rotarians!

We've all heard about and talked about the Backpacks for Kids Food Program.

It's a program near and dear to our Club, So, how are those kids chosen to participate?

Does it do them any good?

What are the needs for the program this year?

Well, our program today will be presented by Alexis Robertson, teaching at Fairview Elementary for her fourth year. Alexis is in her sixth year as the coordinator for the Backpacks for Kids program. Alexis is a product of the Moore Public School system and Oklahoma State University. She lives with her husband, son and daughter in South Oklahoma City.

Alexis will let us in behind the scenes of the Backpack program today.!

Welcome, Alexis!

Quick Little Comments...

Some exciting news about our coming programs...

September 20 will bring our own Frances Wade to give us a report on her trip to Cuba, including pictures! This will be exciting!!!

Be sure to note your calendar so that you won't miss any of this terrific presentation!

Also, be sure to send an email to our President about your volunteer hours. These can be volunteer hours with Church projects, school efforts, and youth sports. Don't forget!

Remember that all of our Happy Dollars this month will be going to the Backpacks For Kids program, and the total will be doubled!
