Moore Happenings

Making a Difference Here & There

Attention Please!

Boss: Are you on drugs??

Me: You and I both know you don't pay me enough to have a drug problem.

Today's Mood: Cranky with a touch of psycho.

If you want to change the world, go home and love your family.

--Mother Teresa

Life is really simple, but we insist on making it complicated.

--Confucius

Sometimes I question my sanity. Occasionally, it replies.

I tried the Japanese method of decluttering where you hold every object that you own and if it does not bring you joy, you throw it away. So far I have thrown out all the vegetables, my bra, the electric bill, the scale, a mirror and my treadmill.

UPCOMING MEETINGS

Be sure to ask a guest to attend a meeting during September!

This will be a great time to introduce prospective members to Rotary!

If you are in charge of a program for a meeting, please send the info no later than the Friday before that meeting to: Cathy@EstesAd.com

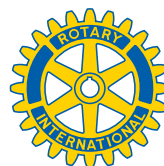

Fascinating!

SEPTEMBER 21, 2016

Can you remember ten years ago what you thought the world would be like in 2016? What exciting things did you think would happen? Well, our program this week is presented by our own Brent Wheelbarger, and not only is he going to address what we thought 2016 would be like, but he is going to let us in on the details of a project to let us speak with the residents of Moore in the next 100 years. How wonderful will this be??? I think that somebody by then will have devised a tether of some sort for those pesky wireless earbuds that keep getting lost!

Let's have a good time hearing about this exciting project! Where will it be stored? HOW will it be stored?

Brent will clue us in!

Made You Smile!

One morning Thomas Jefferson woke up in a modest Washington rooming house, dressed, and then left the house in order to attend his inauguration as the third President. When he got back, duly sworn in, he found no space left for him at the dinner table. Quietly accepting the democratic principle of first come, first served, the President of the United States went up to his room without dinner.

Robert Mitchum, happily married for thirty years, was asked what he thought had made his marriage last, when those of so many of his show-business colleagues had failed. "Mutual forbearance," he replied. "We have each continued to believe that the other will do better tomorrow."

In 1938 President Franklin Roosevelt was invited to address the Daughters of the American Revolution. His speech began, "My fellow immigrants..."

Babe Ruth was once asked if he had any superstitions. "Just one," he said. "Whenever I hit a home run, I make sure I touch all four bases."
