

Murphy elected president of South Portland / Cape Rotary

Adrienne Murphy, the second woman to be named president in the 37-year history of the South Portland/Cape Elizabeth Rotary Club, will begin her 1999-2000 duties on July 1. She takes over from Nancy Hawes.

Murphy lives in Cape Elizabeth. She is a real estate broker for Century 21 Balfour, working out of their offices on Ocean House Road in Cape Elizabeth. She is a graduate of the University of Maine, Orono, and has been a Rotarian for seven years. This past year she served as vice president of the club.

Serving on the club's board with Murphy for this coming year are Kathy Ray, president-elect; Bob Packer, vice president; Keith McAlary, treasurer; Paul Butler, secretary; Jeff Gabrielson, club service director; Rick Dobson, community service director; Janet McLaughlin, international service director; Frank Butterworth, vocational service director; and Nancy Hawes, immediate past president and director at large.

ADRIENNE MURPHY