

The South Portland/Cape Elizabeth Rotary Club President John Eliassen presents Cape Elizabeth School Superintendent Alan Hawkin with a donation for English as Second Language Program. The club recently made several donations to local schools to benefit English language learners. Cape Elizabeth's Pond Cove Middle School received $2,500 to add to the non-fiction collection of the Home for Reading Program. This allows the students to borrow the books to help them assimilate the English language. The club also donated $2,500 to Brown Elementary School in South Portland, which has 24 countries represented within the school body.
