

Giving back

MAKING PEACE POSSIBLE – At a Rotary District 7780 World Peace and Understanding dinner Feb. 23, Rotarians from Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts collected and donated cash and hundreds of pounds of food to the South Portland Food Cupboard.

The president of Rotary International, Wilf Wilkinson, right photo at left, was on hand to help present the donations to Sybil Riemen-snider, right, director of the Food Cupboard. Looking on is Michael McGovern, Cape Elizabeth town manager (center), who is the current vice president of Rotary International and has been a Rotary District Governor and past president of the South Portland/Cape Elizabeth Rotary Club.

Rotarian Joe Conroy from the South Portland/Cape Elizabeth Club was the coordinator of the food collection effort.

Wilkinson spoke to the group about “Making Peace Possible” worldwide. There are about 1.2 million Rotarians in 170 countries. Wilkinson said, “I salute you for your work.”

Warren Simpson, left photo at right, of South Portland, a charter member of the South Portland/Cape Elizabeth Rotary Club,

was presented a Paul Harris Fellow by Wilkinson. Simpson has been an active member of the Rotary Club for 46 years – and has 46 years of perfect attendance. He lists his age as “in the 90s.” (Courtesy photos)

Giving back

MAKING PEACE POSSIBLE - At a Rotary District 7780 World Peace and Understanding dinner Feb. 23, Rotarians from Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts collected and donated cash and hundreds of pounds of food to the South Portland Food Cupboard.

The president of Rotary International, Wilf Wilkinson, right photo at left, was on hand to help present the donations to Sybil Riemsnyder, right, director of the Food Cupboard. Looking on is Michael McGovern, Cape Elizabeth town manager (center), who is the current vice president of Rotary International and has been a Rotary District Governor and past president of the South Portland/Cape Elizabeth Rotary Club.

Rotarian Joe Conroy from the South Portland/Cape Elizabeth Club was the coordinator of the food collection effort.

Wilkinson spoke to the group about "Making Peace Possible" worldwide. There are about 1.2 million Rotarians in 170 countries. Wilkinson said, "I salute you for your work."

Warren Simpson, left photo at right, of South Portland, a charter member of the South Portland/Cape Elizabeth Rotary Club,

was presented a Paul Harris Fellow by Wilkinson. Simpson has been an active member of the Rotary Club for 46 years - and has 46 years of perfect attendance. He lists his age as "in the 90s." (Courtesy photos)