

Recipe contest winners

To gear up for this year's fourth annual International Food Festival, Southern Maine Community College (SMCC) and the Rotary Clubs of South Portland/Cape Elizabeth and Breakwater Daybreak hosted a Recipe Contest among the student body at SMCC.

The winners were announced Feb. 8.

Other contest winners included Jeniffer Gonzalez, Tetyana Tsebro along with 14 runners up.

The winning recipes will be featured at this year's International Food Festival, from noon to 2 p.m., on Saturday, April 26, at the college. Silent auction starts at 11 a.m. The event helps promote awareness and improve understanding of different cultures and raise funds for international and multicultural student scholarships. The first three International Food Festivals raised $24,700 for international and multicultural student scholarships.

Tickets are $20, and may be purchased in advance by contacting any member of the Rotary Clubs or visit the SMCC Web page at www.smccme.edu/foodfest.
