Welcome, Steve! – Steve Klemm joined us as our newest member tonight. Steve lives in Scarborough with his wife Stephanie and has just started a new video production business. We will be hearing all about Steve's business at an upcoming meeting.

You're Invited – to our annual lobster bake on Wednesday, July 16 at Fort Williams. Here are the particulars:

Menu choices:

Lobster (2 lobsters) - $30

Steak - $30

Veggie burger, hamburger or hot dog – adult - $10

Veggie burger, hamburger or hot dog – child - $5

Served with clam chowder, cole slaw, corn-on-the-cob, potato salad & cake.

If you have not yet responded to Anne, please let her know your plans by July 1 by calling her at 767-5754 or emailing her at aeskay@maine.rr.com. (And we hope your back feels better, Anne!)

Raffle – Cyndie Santos was the lucky winner of a gift certificate to Terra Cotta donated by Mike Tranfaglia.

Foundation Recognition – District Foundation Chair Peter Johnson visited our club to make presentations of Bequest Society recognition to Marge Barker, and to Tony Wagner and Sally Campbell. Becoming members of the Bequest Society means that they have made a provision in their estate plans for The Rotary Foundation, and that they have communicated that intention to the Foundation. Also receiving pins for contributions to the Foundation were Ellie Speh and Nancy Hawes.

In making the presentations, Peter stressed the important work of the Foundation, making special mention of Rotary Peace Scholars and efforts towards literacy and education in Guatemala. Peter has had the good fortune of actually visiting Guatemala and meeting people in person whose lives have been completely changed for the better because of the donations we have made to the Rotary Foundation.

(Editor's Note – Why do I give? Because even though I haven't had the chance to go to Guatemala as Peter has and as Kaylene recently did, I still want to be able to share in the warm fuzzies they get by seeing firsthand the good work that our dollars have done.)

Getting to Know You – to help new member Steve become familiar with all our eccentricities, tonight's program was an encore of Rotary Jeopardy, with President Ellie playing the part of Alex Trebek, in addition to writing up all of the clues. A good time was had by all – thanks, Ellie!
