What’s New With Our Members

Happy Birthday to:

Anamaria (5/7)

Charlie Miller (5/8)

Report from the District Conference – Our club was well-represented at the District Conference by the following who attended some or all of the District Conference (actually I think John LoBosco was the only one there for the entire conference):

Kathy Cotter
Marge Barker
Catherine Callahan
Anamaria Gonzalez Salguero
Nancy Hawes
John LoBosco
Mike McGovern
Tony Wagner
Nancy Irving
Scott Irving

Our club was also on the agenda: Marge was the aide to the President' representative, Young Suk Yoon and had the role of introducing him. The highlight of the conference (I'm biased of course) was the report from the team that went to Bulgaria, which was introduced by John LoBosco and included commentary from Catherine and Anamaria.

Another excellent presentation was by Lonnie Hackett whom some of you may remember from when he spoke to our club in the fall. Lonnie is the young Bowdoin College graduate who started a non-profit organization to provide health education to poor children in Zambia. He had just arrived in the US from Zambia a few hours before his presentation and he is here for 2 weeks before returning to continue his work in Zambia.

Visioning – Last night about 30 of us, plus a team of 5 Visioning coordinators from the District, spent the evening thinking about where we'd like our club to be in 5 years. As follow-up, Catherine Callahan volunteered to compile the lists of all our ideas, along with the number of "votes" each one received. Fran Bagdasarian, Sue Sturtevant and Bill York volunteered to use the collected information to write a short "statement of purpose" describing our club. Sybil confirmed her willingness to be the club's Visioning "champion" (actually more like a monitor). We also need to have a "President's Development Team," which will consist of:

Scott Irving
Ali Carignan
Nancy Irving
Bill Anderson
Doug Schauf
Bill York

A big thank you to our moderators who gave up their evening for someone else's club:

Kris Rosado, Portland
Dick Hall, Portland
Roxane Cole, Portland
Curt Combar, Freeport
Laura Young, Portland

For those who weren't there, the results of the Visioning will be shared at a club assembly in the near future.

Foundation Statistics – SP-CE Club – At the Visioning last night, someone brought up the question of how many of our club members are Paul Harris Fellows. So here's more information than you wanted about our club's Foundation giving:

Number of current members: 56

Number of members who are Paul Harris Fellows (i.e. they have given $1,000 to the Foundation or someone has given $1,000 in their name or some combination): 35
