What's New With Our Members

Welcome to the club, Dan McDonald! Dan and his wife Joan are Bill York's next door neighbors, recently moved here from West Virginia to be near their children and grandchildren. Bill is a lawyer and still practices part-time with his firm in W. Va. Besides family, Dan is interested in aviation, gardening and writing poetry.

“Awesome Attendance” – After several months of being stretched really thin at the soup kitchen, we finally had a great turnout this week. Many thanks to:

Ali Carignan
David Lourie
Bill York
Ray Healey
Bill Daviero
Kathy Cotter
Adrienne Murphy
Paul Butler
Jim Britt
Dick Yerxa
Matt Dube + a friend
Joe Conroy
Bill Brewington (CEHS teacher) + friends & family
2 students from SPHS

Reminders:

1. Discretionary Voucher – if you have not used your $50 voucher yet this Rotary year, please consider doing so. As a reminder you can make a donation yourself and then ask Nancy Irving to reimburse you, or you can give her the information to write a check directly from the club. Appropriate uses for the voucher include:
 - a. Charities and causes that the club supports (examples: Food Cupboard, Soup Kitchen, ShelterBox, etc.);
 - b. Charities that you personally would like to send additional funding to;
 - c. Individuals who are in need that have come to your attention (example – the fisherman’s widow with very limited income in Cape Elizabeth that Tom Meyers mentioned a few weeks ago).
2. If you have not made your contribution to The Rotary Foundation so that you can be counted for EREY (see below for what that stands for), please remember to do so by the end of June – you can hand/mail your check to Sue S or Nancy H.

How Much Do You Know About the Foundation? – Our program this week was a trivia contest about the Foundation. Many thanks to Foundation Chair Emeritus Frank Butterworth for serving as emcee, new member Dan McDonald for keeping score, and Bill York for playing “Vanna.” We proved that we are pretty knowledgeable, but the winners were Table 2 (Sybil, Kathy Cotter, David Lourie, Bill Anderson & Jack Roberts) - congratulations! For those who missed it, the quiz is reproduced below.
