What's New With Our Members

Congratulations to Sybil Riemensnider and friend of the club Elizabeth McLellan for being honored among the "Six Who Care"

Intellectual Property – Our speaker this week was Zeke Callanan, a partner in Opticliff Law, LLC. Zeke explained what an LLC is (limited liability company) and answered several questions about limiting liability. He described an LLC as “the least expensive catastrophic insurance that you can buy” (but only if you’re not also providing personal services). He also described some of the law surrounding 4 types of intellectual property – patents, copyrights, trademarks and trade secrets. Among other things, we learned that the recent proliferation of Sherlock Holmes movies and TV shows corresponds to the elapse of 78 years from the death of Arthur Conan Doyle.
