(compiled in Dec. 2015.)

I would like to thank everyone involved in donating, volunteering, and helping to make the fresh, delicious produce available. It helps people like me who can longer do gardens. The fresh flowers were just that extra enjoyment. I especially want to thank the pantry volunteer who brought everything to my home. Blessings to all of you for your help. I would like to give another big thank you for the Thanksgiving basket. The fresh bag of produce was a great help to balance out our meal. Also, my grandson loved putting the finishing touches on our place mats you so generously supplied.

We would like to express our profound gratitude to all those who make Judy's Pantry possible.

To the Cape farms and individual gardeners who so very generously donate an amazing quantity and selection of fresh produce, please know that you make a critical difference in the lives of so many in our community who are food insecure due to limited fixed incomes and other financial hardships. You have not only provided a wonderful bounty of food, but also made it possible for families to have more nutritious meals which include locally grown produce. When money is tight, sadly, these are some of the first foods to be cut from the budget.

Additionally, thank you so much to the individuals and organizations who, through donations of money and food items have made possible the year-round availability of non-perishable food staples. How uplifting it was in the middle of the winter to be able to come to the pantry and find so many essential items! With the cost of food climbing all the time, this provides real help in stretching one's food budget.

Thank you to the dedicated pantry volunteers who give so much time and energy to keeping the pantry running. Judy's Pantry would not happen without hours of preparation each week. Your efforts and good cheer are very much appreciated!

And, last but not least, thank you to those who provide and put together the lovely floral arrangements for people to take home. They symbolize the sense of community and caring that is the essence of Judy's Pantry.

We are so fortunate to have this resource in our town!

We would like to thank everyone involved with Judy's Pantry for helping us get through some hard times. We appreciate the volunteers for all they do, the farmers for their fresh produce, those who make monetary donations, and the ladies who brighten our days with beautiful flowers. Words cannot express how thankful we are for Judy's Pantry.

My thanks for the Thanksgiving Basket and to all the volunteers and supporters of the pantry. To all the farmers, gardeners, residents, church representatives and weekly volunteers – I am most grateful for your generosity of time, talent and supply. A special thank you to the Methodist Church for providing this opportunity by giving the time and space to assist those of us with limited income now and throughout the year – but especially during this holiday. Bringing joy and happiness which might not otherwise be.

With heartfelt gratitude and warm blessings,

J.

Thanks to all and God bless you angels.

To the many folks who support Judy's pantry in so many ways, I just want to thank you. It is amazing what you've accomplished each doing your part to make this pantry work for those of us who need it. I am so grateful for the healthy produce, for the supply of canned goods and sauces for the Thanksgiving basket I received, for decorated Thanksgiving bags, for beautiful flowers and herbs, for tasty quick breads! These only represent a little of the work that was done by you whether it was growing or transporting or donating or managing the pantry or filing paperwork or organizing the pantry room or baskets or decorating or making special treats, I thank you all for your kindness and generosity. May God bless you for your good deeds to all of us.

Thank you so much for what all of you have been doing. Our family really appreciates all the fresh produce that we have enjoyed and stay healthy, the beautiful flowers that brighten our days, and the great Thanksgiving meal that each year we so looked forward to with family and friends. Without your dedicated and compassionate spirit, and all the hours that you put in, none of the above could happen. With heartfelt thanks, our family wishes every one of you A HAPPY AND BLESSED NEW YEAR!

With Regards,
J.
