MARK YOUR CALENDAR:

January 23 - WinterFest Sponsors party

January 24, 6-7:30 – Recognizing & Responding to an Opiate Overdose (including Naloxone training) at Maine Medical Center Dana Auditorium, 22 Bramhall Street, Portland; hosted by Portland Rotary Club.

June 21-22, 2019 – District Conference at Fort Williams

What's New With Our Members

Get well wishes to John LoBosco, who is recovering from an infection at Maine Medical Center - we miss you John and hope that you'll be able to come home soon!!

Our sincere condolences to the family of former long-time member Nick Pappas who passed away last week at the age of 89. Nick and his family owned The Puritan restaurant where he worked before becoming a stockbroker for Livada Securities.

Happy Birthday, Isabell (Jan. 29)

Next Week's Meeting – Next week's meeting is our annual WinterFest Sponsor Appreciation party, which was held at Verbena in prior years. This is one of the infrequent opportunities we get to chat with our fellow Rotarians' spouses (I'm thinking of you, Becca Geneseo and Judy Knupp!) so I hope you'll all consider coming and bringing a guest. As the invitation indicated, it will be a cocktail party format with heavy hors d'oeuvres rather than the regular dinner. Cost is $13 and the planning committee needs to give Purpoodock a head count ASAP so please respond if you haven't already.

Overheard at the Maine Mariners Hockey Game –

(to usher) "How many quarters are there?" "Three" "You mean I'm not getting a full game?" - anonymous

"All's you gotta do is shoot it in the net!" – this perceptive coaching advice from Ray Healey

"Put a stick in his side – let him know you're there!" – even better coaching advice from Mike Geneseo

"First she punched me in the face; then she caught the t-shirt"- Doug Schauf, explaining how Dana ended up with a t-shirt.

Based on the coaching advice being offered, you might have guessed that the Maine Mariners were not winning ☹️ But the 30 or so who went (including the whole Knupp clan!) had a great time anyway. Thanks so much to Dave Bagdasarian for arranging this fun event!
