where he graduated with a B.B.A. in Accounting. After a successful career in industry and public accounting, he entered the insurance and financial services field in 1983. Today, he serves as President of Woodforest Financial Services, an affiliate of Woodforest National Bank.

After three terms in the Texas House of Representatives, Williams was elected to the Texas Senate representing over 650,000 Southeast Texas residents. Senator Williams is a member of the powerful Senate Finance Committee, Transportation and Homeland Security Committee, Education Committee, Subcommittee on Higher Education and is Vice-Chair of the Senate's State Affairs Committee.

An outspoken advocate for Texas taxpayers, Senator Williams is a recognized leader in budgetary issues and is consistently recognized for his pro-jobs and pro-family voting record. Also, his work and leadership in the criminal justice and law enforcement fields have been recognized by numerous statewide associations.

Senator Williams and his wife, Marsha, have been married for twenty-one years and are the proud parents of two sons.
