PREVIEW- DECEMBER 1st
GENE KRANZ, RETIRED FLIGHT DIRECTOR

As the leader of the "Tiger Team" of flight directors who brought the Apollo 13 spaceship safely back to Earth on April 17, 1970, Gene Kranz demonstrated extraordinary courage and heroism. The hit film, Apollo 13, chronicles Kranz's struggle to devise the plan that would safely bring the ship and its crew of three astronauts home after its oxygen system failed. Actor Ed Harris portrays Kranz in the film, which was directed by Ron Howard.

Kranz retired from NASA in 1994 after 37 years of federal service and is currently a consultant and speaker. "Failure is not an option," the motto that carried him through the Apollo 13 crisis, is a major theme of his motivational message.

According to Gene Kranz, "To properly tell the story of Apollo 13 takes about 45 minutes." To ensure that we allow the appropriate time to hear this fascinating story, the business meeting will begin at 12:00 so that our speaker can begin at 12:15. People who have heard this presentation describe it as mesmerizing. Plan to attend and be there early! Steve Doblin will introduce speaker. Click for additional
