At Allen Honda, we strive to make auto maintenance as easy on your budget as it can possibly be. That starts with our low everyday service prices and extends to our ever-changing lineup of service and parts deals that can save you even more of your hard-earned money. Our locally owned and family operated dealership has ten express lube bays where we do a 20 minutes-or-less oil change! Our all-new service facility is complete with a customer care area and a clean playroom for your children. Add to that our Saturday service hours and use of genuine car parts, and it's no wonder motorists return to Allen Honda time and time again for auto care.
