SERVE TO CHANGE LIVES

Together we see a world where people unite and take action to create lasting change across the globe, in our communities, and in ourselves.

THE ROTARY PEACE CENTERS celebrate 20 years of training peacebuilders. Since the first Rotary Peace Centers welcomed peace fellows 20 years ago, more than 1,500 of them have gained the experience, skills, and networks they need to build peace in their communities and around the world. Collectively, program alumni are making a tremendous impact through their work as leaders in conflict transformation, as well as in the areas of community and international development that make conflict less likely to occur. Rotary's long-term commitment to peace education will continue to support leaders in the future. In fact, the peace centers program will expand, with the addition of a new certificate program in the Middle East or North Africa by 2025. This truly is a long-term investment.

Josh Jones aka J.J. Jones was born June 29, 1983 and spent his youth on the Southwest side of Houston TX. Jones graduated from Westbury High School in June of 2001. Upon graduating high school he signed his first professional baseball contract with the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim. Jones was only 17 years old making him the youngest professional athlete from Westbury High School. He patrolled the outfield professionally with the Anaheim Angels, Cincinnati Reds, and Florida Marlins organizations. When Jones baseball career ended he decided to pursue a professional basketball career internationally. While during the off-season he began his coaching career with the Texas Rebels Baseball Organization. After several years of playing internationally he decided to pursue his passion, and founded the Texas Bluechips Baseball Organization in 2014.
