Jesús Moya is the Adult Services manager at Rosenberg Library in Galveston. In addition to Adult Services, he is also responsible for Young Adult, Computer Lab, and Extension services.

Jesús has been a professional librarian for over 16 years. He started his library career working in the circulation services department in a library in Indiana and worked his way up to branch manager, working in and leading a variety of departments and services along the way.

Jesús holds a Master's Degree in Library Science from Indiana University. He has two amazing sons that he is proud of, a crazy cat, and a lazy bearded dragon.

Our goal is to strengthen the capacity of communities to support basic education and literacy, reduce gender disparity in education, and increase adult literacy. We support education for all children and literacy for children and adults.
