Korean - ahn nyeong ha se yo (formal; pronounced ahn-yan-ha-say-yo)

Together we see a world where people unite and take action to create lasting change across the globe, in our communities, and in ourselves.

Song of the Week:

This Land is Your Land

This land is your land, this land is my land, from California to the New York Island. From the Redwood Forest to the Gulf Stream waters. This land was made for you and me

As I went walking that ribbon of highway, I saw above me that endless skyway. I saw below me that golden valley. This land was made for you and me.

I roamed and rambled, and If ollowed my footsteps to the sparkling sands of her diamond deserts. All around me, a voice was sounding This land was made for you and me

There was a big, high wall there that tried to stop me. A sign was painted said "Private Property" But on the backside, it didn't say nothing This land was made for you and me .

When the sun come shining, then I was strolling. and the wheat fields waving, and the dust clouds rolling. The voice was chanting as the fog was lifting. This land was made for you and me.

This land is your land, this land is my land From California to the New York Island. From the Redwood Forest to the Gulf Stream waters This land was made for you and me

Program:
Tracey Clines
Everybody's Place of Galveston County

January Theme: Rotary
Vocational Service Month

Together with her husband, Paul, Tracey Clines is the Co-Founder and Co-Executive Director of Everybody's Place of Galveston County which is a non-profit ministry focused on creating supportive housing for neighbors experiencing homelessness. Tracey has been a Registered Nurse for 30 years with the majority of her career spent in Case Management/Service Coordination. With a passion for improving community health and wellbeing, Tracey has dedicated her career to supporting vulnerable populations and advocating for positive change. She is fueled by the fact that 'love your neighbor' still matters. Tracey is a proud mother of three adult children, loves everything college football and when she has the opportunity, enjoys traveling with her husband

For January 2026, Rotary International's monthly focus is Vocational Service Month, aligning with the overarching 2025-2026 yearly theme, "Unite for Good," emphasizing service through members' professions to create positive change and build connections worldwide.
