Teresa Potter is the new Executive Director of the Galveston Arts Center. Teresa aims to elevate the GAC and expand its reach and impact throughout and beyond the Galveston community. Her vision for the future of GAC is to establish it as a beacon for diversity and inclusion for locals, travelers, and all Galveston Island aficionados.

Teresa has a master's degree in business administration from the University of Houston Downtown and a master's degree in library science from the University of North Texas. The time on Galveston Island she spent completing her bachelor's degree in marine biology with Texas A&M University at Galveston is what brought her back to the island. Teresa formerly served as City Librarian at League City's Helen Hall Library. In her previous library roles, she collaborated with several civic organizations and businesses to increase awareness of library services in the community. After 14 years in librarianship, her role at GAC opens new opportunities to lead through thought-provoking and inspiring community service, empower and embrace freedom of expression, and uplift artist voices.

Teresa enjoys spending quality time with her partner, their dogs, cats, chickens, and ducks! She loves life and loves meeting new people.

The Rotary theme for August 2024 is Membership and New Club Development. During this month, Rotary clubs around the world focus on membership and may invite friends and business associates to join.
