What Happened Last Week

IMMIGRATION REFORM

Houston attorney Charles C. Foster brought us an informed position on the question of immigration reform. Mr. Foster, who has served as a senior policy adviser to both Presidents George W. Bush and Barrack Obama, brings a long list of credentials to the table in discussing this matter, which he says is both complex and obviously politically charged. He calls for a national immigration policy that includes some legal avenue for immigrants.

Mr. Foster discussed his first-hand experience in his helping internationally acclaimed Chinese dancer, Li Cunix, to remain in the United States, despite the efforts of the Chinese government to have him forcibly removed. This incredible tale is now part of a movie, Mao's Last Dancer. Despite the political posturing that swirls about the question, the club was reminded that America is a land of immigrants, and that most of us are descendants of someone who was not a native American.

Our thanks to member Martha Paxton for her help in bringing Mr. Foster—who is her cousin—to the club.

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL

Weekly Update: Rotary Challenge Rotary leaders are ready to build 'Peace Through Service' after International Assembly

Incoming district governors left the 2012 International Assembly in San Diego, California, USA, equipped with new skills and ideas to develop stronger districts and clubs in 2012-13. RI President-elect Sakuji Tanaka began the weeklong training event by asking the 530 governors-elect to build Peace Through Service. "Peace, in all of the ways that we can understand it, is a real goal and a realistic goal for Rotary," Tanaka said. "Peace is not something that can only be achieved through agreements, by governments, or through heroic struggles. It is something that we can find and that we can achieve, every day and in many simple ways." RI President Kalyan Banerjee provided attendees with his own tips for building stronger clubs, including serving as role models and leading as equals. He explained that leadership in Rotary means giving support — not giving orders.

"To really succeed, you have to look past yourself, past your year, and into the long term, at the health of your community and our organization," Banerjee concluded. He encouraged district governors-elect to approach their year with peace in mind.

"All of you are leaving here as every district-governor elect should: determined to make your year in Rotary office the best year yet," Banerjee said. "You are leaving here as well with a great and noble goal: making 2012-13 a year of Peace Through Service."

We are proud to have our own Brenda Walker as part of this group of 2012-2013 District Governors.
