February - Peace and

Images of America ANDERSON COUNTY

The winter of 1949 was a very cold icy winter in Anderson County. It caused many hardships to both businesses and citizens. Electricity was lost when ice broke the lines, and driving was hazardous because the streets were treacherous. But in the midst of the chaos, the ice caused the beauty of a snowy wonderland.

Pictured above, the cars along Spring Street are covered with snow.

There is an old saying, "Nothing is normal about the weather in Texas." This photograph proves that statement is definitely true in Anderson County, where spring weather is very unpredictable. The year this picture was taken, the dogwoods were in their full glory when a late freeze produced a wonderland of ice and bloom.
