9th President 1920-1921

A. Caldwell Green, 1864-1924 classification, Real Estate; charter member; served the balance of the term vacated by the resignation of President Roy Dunlap. Green was serving as vice-president when he was elected President by the club in October, 1916. Activities included Secretary of Young Men's Business League (later Chamber of Commerce), Director of the newly constructed Redlands Hotel, Vice-president of YMCA.

He led the opening of the North side of Palestine by pushing for a bridge across the gully (Town Creek) in order to extend N Sycamore Street for easy access to north. He sold part of his property to the city, with the provision that it would be a public park. Today, we know it as Green's Park.

Perhaps the most visible sign he left us is the horse trough which he erected in 1895, and which still stands today at intersection of Ave A, Spring, & Sycamore in front of former grocery, bank, now real estate office. His name (and date) is on side of trough. He is buried in East Hill Cemetery.

6th President 1917-1918

J. C. Oehler, 1857-1941; classification, Minister-Presbyterian; charter member, was 60 years old when he became club president in 1917.

Dr. James Cornelius Oehler (pronounced Earler) came to Palestine in 1908 as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. He was a charter member of the Palestine Rotary Club and the sixth person to serve as the club's president. A fine orator. Oehler was frequently called on to deliver "talks" on the ethics of the club. The newspaper reported that at a meeting held on December 30, 1915, the club president called on "Rev. J. C. Oehler to give a toast to and for Rotarians on the eve of the New Year, and after a brief talk Dr. Oehler proposed, 'I desire thy good rather than thy good will,' which is a beautiful sentiment and a test of friendship and loyalty. The club drank to the toast in pure water."

Dr. Oehler was born in N. Carolina in 1857, and was a Princeton graduate with postgraduate work in Edinburgh, Scotland. He married Kizzie Cain of South Carolina; after her death, he married Sarah Allen Dukes of San Antonio. He made two trips to the Orient, which he wrote of in his book, A Cruise to the Orient, still available in reprint; his daughter, Louse later served as a missionary to China. He moved to Nacogdoches in 1933 where he died in 1941.

7th President 1918-1919

Irby Hughes, 1888-1967; classification, Fruit & Vegetable Produce. Our first club president who was not a charter member, he was born in Galveston and was there at the time of the great hurricane of 1900. He came to Palestine in 1913 and engaged in wholesale fruit business. He later became purchasing agent for Knox Glass, until retirement.

He married Helen Hufsmith. Their daughter, Christine, married Bailey Summers (future Rotarian), and they are parents of PDG Hugh Summers. Hughes served as Palestine school trustee for 16 years. He died in 1967 and is buried in East Hill cemetery.

8th President 1919-1920

Virgil D. Wilson, classification, Real Estate, joined the club in 1915 He was president of the Palestine Sewer System when it was first developed and long before it was a city utility. He served as a Palestine School Trustee.

He was Club President when the President of University of Texas, Robert Vinson, who was also Rotary District Governor Robert Vinson of Texas, visited our club

He was also Club President when the club was responsible for the welcome and visit of the vice-president of the United States, Thomas R. Marshall. The vice-president spent part of a day here, being shown the town and surroundings.

We would welcome any information about Wilson
