PALESTINE DAILY HERALD

Seems like only yesterday
Stories of interest just twenty years ago in 1992

WALMART SUPER CENTER. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., announced in January it would build a Supercenter store on land on Loop 256. The 171,000 square-foot store is expected to open in early 1993, and will stock a full line of grocery items, as well as general merchandise.

Some 68 families living at the Pinewood Mobile Home Park on Old Elkhart Road were forced to move as the construction took in the mobile home park.

LIBRARY AWARD. The national spotlight turned to Palestine in 1992 as the Palestine Public Library was designated the Outstanding Small Library of the Year by the American Library Trustees Association.

The award, announced in February and received in June, followed several awards garnered by the library the previous year. Library Director Cynthia Gray won the Director of the Year Award from the Texas Municipal League Library Director's Association. The library also received a Project of the Year Award from the Northeast

Texas Library System for its sponsorship of a three-part National Issues Forum entitled, "Seeking Common Ground. Remedies for Racial Inequality."

VETERANS PARK. Ground was broken for Veterans Park in February at Spring and Howard Streets downtown. Organizers sold 3,000 memorial bricks engraved with veteran's names and service records to line pathways in the park. The opening of the park was delayed in November to allow for the sale of 500 more bricks.

At year's end, 300 bricks were left to be sold. Bricks cost $25 each. Construction is under way as the brick sales continue.

DOWNTOWN FIRE. The Murphy-Link building in downtown Palestine was destroyed by a fire on August 18. Two walls of the building crashed into Oak and Queen Streets about 15 minutes after a massive second-floor explosion. Two fire fighters were injured in the blaze.

The blaze began at DeLuxe Cleaners, one of three businesses in the two-story building's first floor as owner, Jimmy Johnson was filling a container with naptha cleaning fluid. Some of the fluid spilled over and flowed beneath a boiler. The heat of the boiler ignited the fluid.

Also destroyed in the blaze were the Golden Comb Beauty Shop and Wacha Tailor Shop.

CALS. U. S. Air Force personnel and politicians came to Palestine promising jobs—then delivered. Computer Aided Logistics Center opened in Palestine this fall in the old Superior Bank Building on East Oak Street, promising more jobs when the project moves to the Anderson County campus of Trinity Valley Community College.

The CALS director said the program will need a building twice as large as the one first anticipated. CALS offered the city a chance to get into the high-tech business of scanning technology, and the hope is that spin-off industries will flock to Palestine as the technology matures.
