PALESTINE DAILY HERALD Wednesday Evening, September 23, 1914 THE ROTARY CLUB HEARD DR. SILLIMAN TALK

The Rotary Club enjoyed the regular every other Wednesday dinner in the Inter-State dining room at noon today, and a full attendance of the membership, excepting a few, enjoyed the hour. Dr. Silliman, who recently returned home from a tour of China, Japan, and some of the European countries, was the speaker of the occasion, and entertained in a most pleasant way his audience. The doctor spoke of the food of China and Japan and told of several state dinners at which he and his party were guests. And, after having heard the description of the dinners, we conclude that we of America have much the best of living. However, this is a mere viewpoint, as the doctor explained that those people will not eat our kind of food when the opportunity is offered.

The Rotary Club is growing, and the sessions are always of much interest and pleasure.

It Happened Last Wednesday

Lisa Safford introduced our speaker, Chuck Skinner, of the Palestine Regional Medical Center who spoke to the club about the Hospital's Emergency Medical Services. Skinner heads this great service that is provided throughout our county, and into other areas, including road trips to Dallas, Houston, or Tyler.

Mr. Skinner brings 26-plus years of experience with him from Dallas, where he was involved for many of those years with the Dallas care-flight program. He mentioned the incredible changes that have taken place in this type of service over those years, and particularly in the more recent past. The curve of improvements in equipment and training is spiraling upward pretty rapidly, and new techniques—available here in Palestine right now—are radically changing treatment protocol and survival rate for those in need of the EMS. He promises that we will soon have a medical helicopter based here in Palestine. In addition to his experience, Mr. Skinner brings obvious enthusiasm and dedication with him. We are fortunate to have him and his expertise in our community.

🕒 President Mike gave a 7-day notice on John McAughan, who has been visiting us for several meetings.

🕒 Guests of Rotarians on July 11th were James Waugh, Spencer Shule and John McAughan.
