31st President 1942-1943

Carl Everett Webb, 1892-1959; classification, Accounting Services-CPA, became club president at age 50.

Born in Chidester, Arkansas, a small town in Ouachita County, with a population today of 289, Carl lived nearly all of his adult life in Palestine, moving here in 1923. WWII took its toll on every aspect of American life. Rotary membership, like that of all social and business clubs, plummeted as existing members left to serve in the military, and few, if any, new members came into the club. But the club survived those years.

Carl served as City Auditor for a time, and remained active in the Masons and was a Worthy Patron of the local Order of the Eastern Star. He is buried in the Land of Memory Cemetery.

32nd President 1943-1944

C. Gerald Joyce, 1901-1981; classification, Groceries, Wholesale, was 42 when club president.

Born 1901 in Overton, he spent most of his adult life in Palestine, and joined the club in 1937. He graduated from Palestine High School in 1919, where he was active baseball, football, basketball.

He owned Joyce Grocery Company, and later owned and operated Ford Auto Agency prior to his retirement in 1953. His place of business for both those operations stood at the west end of Spring Street, which essentially stopped at intersection of Tennessee Avenue. It began its existence as a two-story Palestine Hose Company, part of the early Fire Department.

He was the first President of Palestine Industrial Foundation, a Past president of Meadowbrook Country Club, and an active leader in the Chamber of Commerce.

33rd President 1944-1945

Tom Bailey, Jr. 19013-1945; classification, Funeral Director; was born in Palestine and graduated from Palestine High School. He attended Southern Methodist University and graduated from University of Texas with a degree in Mechanical Engineering. He joined the family funeral business in 1937, and continued in that occupation until his retirement.

He was President of the Young Men's Civic Club, which later became the Jaycees. He was City tennis champion in 1935. He served in multiple civic roles including President of the Palestine Industrial Foundation, President of Chamber of Commerce, President of Meadowbrook Country Club, Chairman and secretary/treasurer of American Red Cross, Chairman and Drive Chairman of Palestine United Way. He was an original director of Palestine Savings and Loan, and was one of the group that originally established Clay-Burn Tile in Palestine.

Tom remembered his year as president as one of many meeting places. Mrs. Lynes, owner of the Blue Moon Inn, died and the club moved to the O'Neil Hotel for its meetings. When the Blue Moon Inn was briefly re-opened, the club moved back, but the venue didn't work out. They briefly moved to the Cosmopolitan Café, and then back to the O'Neil Hotel where they remained for a number of years.

Tom was 24 when he became a Rotarian in 1937. His son, Tommie Bailey, is a current member of the club and a past-president. His grandson, Clint, was also a member. The family has provided club leadership for some 76 years of the club's history.
