Last Week's Program

Belinda Murphy, a 6 county representative of Carter BloodCare and a member of the Angelina Rotary Club spoke about the services of Carter BloodCare. Carter Blood Care was founded in 1998 by the merger of two local blood centers, Carter BloodCare is Texas' largest blood center. The mission of Carter BloodCare is to save lives by making transfusion possible.

Carter BloodCare is guided by the philosophy that community blood donations should benefit community patients, and that blood centers must be responsive to the community that supports them. Carter BloodCare's board of directors is made of local leaders, including medical professionals, hospital administrators, business and civic leaders. Our highest priority is meeting the needs of the community.

Carter BloodCare is the primary provider of blood components and transfusion services for approximately 300 Texas health care facilities. Last year, Carter BloodCare provided over 300,000 blood components for area patients. Physicians order blood for more than 600 patients each day within Carter BloodCare's service area, and most patients receive more than one transfusion. Approximately 25 to 30 blood drives occur in the 6 county area on any given day. 1,100 donors a day are needed to meet patient needs. An individual can donate once every 16 weeks. Rotarians account for 1% of the total world blood supply.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Uppsala University in Sweden to host new Rotary Peace Center

The Rotary Foundation Board of Trustees has selected Uppsala University in Uppsala, Sweden, to host a new Rotary Center for International Studies in peace and conflict resolution.

During their April meeting, the Trustees agreed to negotiate an agreement with Uppsala University to house the seventh Rotary Peace Center, which will join those in Asia, Australia, North America, South America, and the United Kingdom.

"We are excited about this new partnership with Uppsala University to take the Rotary Peace Centers program to the next level," says Foundation Trustee Chair Carl-Wilhelm Stenhammar. "We are confident that our Rotary Peace Fellow alumni, actively engaged in peace-building and conflict prevention and resolution around the world, will agree that partnering with Uppsala University to host a Rotary Peace Center is a winning strategy."

"This is an important milestone for the Rotary Peace Centers and great timing, given the exciting announcement of the new center at Sweden's Uppsala University," says Netzel. "Now that we've reached $55 million, we've set our sights on a goal of $60 million by 30 June. We're well over halfway to our overall goal of $95 million by 2015."

Oh, when we meet at Rotary,
Yes, I want to be in that number,
When we meet at Rotary.
