What Happened Last Week

■ Governor Ulli regaled us, entertained us, and inspired us with his presentation. Reminding us that we must all continue to dream the Rotary dream of helping others through Service above Self, Ulli reminded us that we must also work to fulfill those dreams. Clearly the Governor is doing that work himself. Ulli, in urging us to be better Rotarians by leading by example, issued four challenges to our club. Membership: he challenged us to insure that we have a net gain in membership of at least one member for the year. But beyond that, he challenged us as members to each find one new member for our club-to be proactive in this area that is absolutely vital to our progress and survival as an institution. Rotary Foundation: he challenged (or dared) us as individuals to each contribute fifty dollars-out of pocket-to the Rotary Foundation. He reminded us of the wonderful work done by the foundation from Polio Plus to the smaller but significant grants to individual club-both of which demonstrate Rotary's commitment at every level. He also reminded us of the "benefit to all concerned" in becoming a Rotary benefactor. Public Relations: Ulli urged us to be more public about Rotary activities and achievements. There is much-obviously-that Rotary Service offers to the world. Our best publicity lies in the doing, not in the saying. But it doesn't hurt to occasionally remind others of those accomplishments. Youth and the New Generations: the Governor emphasized the New Generations aspect of Rotary International, and challenged the club to work harder to find more outbound exchange candidates. Governor Ulli has thrown down the gauntlet. Shall we pick it up?

- Jeff Watson and Jason Marshall were inducted into the club by President Ron. Congratulations to both, we are pleased to have you with us as part of Rotary.
- Dictionary Project Pictures: Dictionaries were given out to all the area 3rd Grade Students. Thank you to all the Rotarians that helped to deliver dictionaries.

- Picture from the District Governor Social. Everyone had a wonderful time at Sabor a Pasion.
