CLUB NEWS

Volume XCVIV, Issue 9

It Happend Last Week

April Johnston told us of her adventures in opening and building the Texas Art Depot/Granny Muffin Wine enterprise. Along with her husband, Mike, they are now an international business, doing extensive business on the internet. They are shipping art pieces and wine nationally and internationally, and having a great time while doing so. April, herself, has adopted the persona of Granny Muffin, with a costume to match. What began as the hobby of wine making developed into a thriving business in Palestine's business section, attracting scores of visitors as well as local wine enthusiasts. They now produce some forty wine varieties from imported grape juice. Great presentation, April, and great business for our town.

⦿ Hugh Summers reminded the club that the District Youth Exchange students will be in Palestine on October 26-28 for several activities including the building of cardboard kayaks at Crystal Lake.

⦿ Carol Herrington announced the new Mentoring Program which will assign a mentor to each new Rotarian, who will help the new member learn about Rotary by actively participating in club activities. Sounds like a great program.

⦿ President Mike averred that he was having a wonderful time being club president, and thanked all the good people who had made that possible. Good job, Mike.

⦿ David Barnard won our drawing

PALESTINE DAILY HERALD

*Wednesday Evening,
November 3, 1926*

It was unanimously voted at the noon luncheon today by the Rotarians, to have their weekly luncheons regularly at the Blue Moon Inn, Mrs. Will Lyne's.

The delicious luncheons of the past three weeks easily captured the Rotarians, and they look forward to many happy hours spent at this popular place.

Today, Howard Ware introduced as his guest, Rev. Calvin Nelson, new pastor of the Baptist Church here. The visitor made a little talk and a fine impression.

Virge Murdaugh, chairman of entertainment, introduced Orin Cutter who talked on his classifications, Drugs. And Orin made a good talk, and was heard with interest. Max Garrett is to make his vocational talk next week.

President Bonner Frizzell announced a special committee composed of Herbert Hinzle, Bill Stephens, and Van Hamilton, to study and make a report on the sixth object of Rotary—world peace.

It was a good meeting.

Around Town

In 1922, the new radio was all the talk here and across the country. The Palestine Herald carried a series on how to build a radio. Including material, etc. They wrote, "The Herald understands that the Shriners are installing a radio room in their Temple. These radio outfits are coming into general use and groups or clubs are installing them and getting the benefit of the many concerts to be heard. Mr. Roquemore who has a splendid outfit in his home says he heard some wonderful music Saturday night."
