History of the Club

On Tuesday evening, June 3rd, 1913, the Rotary Club of Palestine held its first meeting. Some 20 members were present. The group, which had been called together by Harry I Meyers, met at the Interstate dining room in the International Hotel. Myers, a Palestine native, had come back home in 1912 from San Antonio to join members of his family at the Grand Leader Department store. Perhaps he had heard of the Rotary Club organized in 1912 in San Antonio.

Club officers were elected with twenty-nine-year-old Myers as club president. The newspaper article about that meeting states that "the object of the Rotary Club is to promote social relations between business men."

At the time of its organization, the Palestine Club was the 75th Rotary Club, world-wide, and the 8th club in Texas.

President Greg

October is Economic and Community Development Month in Rotary. This focus reminds us that lasting change begins when people are given opportunities to build better lives.

Through vocational training, small business support, and community projects, Rotarians help create hope and stability both locally and globally.

This month, let's consider how we can support entrepreneurs, mentor youth, and strengthen our own community's economic fabric. Every effort – big and small – helps bring Rotary's visino of opportunity for all to life.

RI President Message

Francesco Arezzo

Rotary Club Ragusa Italy

October is Rotary's Community Economic Development Month, a time to spotlight our efforts to help communities build thriving, sustainable futures.

This month's observance aligns perfectly with the Rotary core value of leadership. Leadership means empowering people to guide their own progress. That is precisely what Rotary's economic development projects aim to achieve. Take, for example, a recent initiative in southern India in which Rotary members unlocked the power of women of the Adivasi tribal groups through sewing training to earn a living and regain social inclusion. Historically, widows and abandoned women in this region lose social standing and are shunned by society or blamed for their misfortunes. Opportunities to support themselves or obtain training are minimal. This year, the Rotary Club of Windsor-Roseland, Ontario, partnered with clubs in Districts 3203 and 3234 in India – and with the Indian organization Sevalaya Trust – to provide sewing machines and training to 80 Adivasi women. They learned to stitch saree blouses, kurta tunics, and salwar suits, enabling them to support themselves and their families. Each woman received a certificate for completing the program, and the sewing-machine provider offered free long-term maintenance for the machines. The project offered vital income and dignity to women ostracized by society after widowhood. This story is one example of Rotary leadership in action: local people guiding solutions that address community needs. Our role is not to deliver charity or to impose outside models, but to foster self-reliance by investing in leadership, skills, and sustainable enterprise. This October, I invite Rotary members worldwide to reflect on economic leadership in their communities. Who is stepping forward to lead local economic initiatives? Where is there untapped talent that could be supported with training or mentorship? How can your club catalyze opportunity through partnerships with local businesses, vocational schools, or savings groups? Leadership is not always about being visible. Sometimes it means listening, working collaboratively, and amplifying the voices of others. That approach lies at the heart of Rotary's philosophy and our lasting impact on economic development. By building capacity – whether through microcredit groups, vocational training workshops, or entrepreneurship programs – we enable communities to lead their own transformation. When people take ownership of their progress, change becomes sustainable. Let us lead with good intention and provide support with heart. By nurturing local leadership, we can create opportunities that ripple through communities, empowering individuals, families, and societies. Together, we can support economies that work for everyone and enact community development projects that last.

FIVE REASONS TO BE IN ROTARY

HELP OTHERS

Our club does service projects throughout the year and is open to new ideas on how to meet the needs of our local and global community.

SHARE KINDNESS

Every time Rotarians get together there are smiles, hugs and laughter. It is an environment of sincere kindness with one another.

CONNECTIONS

Whether it's professional networking or making new friends, Rotary is a great place for organic connections that can last a lifetime.

PERSONAL GROWTH

Rotary provides many training and educational opportunities, a chance to try new things in a supportive environment, and ways to expand your mind.

FOR FUN!

We spend a lot of time socializing because we genuinely enjoy each other's company. There are pub nights, parties, picnics and group outings throughout the year.

ECONOMIC AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT MONTH

Rotary designates October as Economic and Community Development Month to highlight projects focused on sustainable, lasting economic improvement in communities. During this month, Rotary clubs worldwide emphasize how they use vocational skills to support entrepreneurs, provide opportunities for productive work, and build capacity in community leaders to foster long-term growth and reduce poverty.

Key Focus Areas for Rotary in October

Sustainable Economic Growth: Clubs work to create long-term economic stability through various projects and investments.

Community Well-being: Rotary projects aim to improve the overall quality of life and social fabric of communities.

Poverty Reduction: Initiatives focus on creating job opportunities and providing the resources needed for people to achieve economic independence.

Empowerment of Local Leaders: Building the capacity of community leaders and entrepreneurs enables them to drive local development.

Vocational Training and Entrepreneurship: Supporting small businesses and providing vocational training helps create more productive and resilient communities.

Humanitarian or professional?

As Rotarians we have two essential callings: Professional action or humanitarian action.

Overtime, the humanitarian side has often taken center stage, but it is important to remember that Rotary was also founded as a place for professional exchange, a forum for reflection on ethics and service in professional life.

Today, some suggest giving more space to this original dimension. Should we choose between the two?

No: the challenge is to balance and connect our actions.

The professional skills of our members strengthen the quality of our humanitarian projects, while solidarity gives deeper meaning to our professional journeys.

A vibrant club is one that values both dimensions and knows how to combine them.

In this way, we remain faithful to Rotary's founding spirit and attractive to the generations to come.

WORLD POLIO DAY

Rotary wants to eradicate polio to save children from irreversible paralysis and death, prevent a surge in new cases (up to 200,000 children paralyzed each year), reduce global healthcare costs, and achieve a historical public health victory comparable to smallpox eradication. Motivated by a 1979 project in the Philippines, the organization launched the PolioPlus initiative in 1985 to immunize every child and continues to collaborate with global partners like the World Health Organization, UNICEF, and the Gates Foundation to achieve a polio-free world.

HOW ROTARY IS WORKING TO END POLIO

GLOBAL PARTNERSHIPS:

Rotary International is a key partner in the Global Polio Eradication Initiative (GPEI), working with governments, the World Health Organization (WHO), UNICEF, the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.

DEDICATED FUNDING and VOLUNTEERS:

Since launching its PolioPlus program in 1985, Rotary has committed billions of dollars and countless volunteer hours to the cause.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT:

Rotary works with local communities to build trust and encourage children's immunization, especially in areas with challenges in accessing healthcare.

Why Eradicate Polio?

- Prevent Paralysis and Death: Polio is a paralyzing disease with no cure; immunization is the only way to prevent it. Without continued efforts, it could paralyze hundreds of thousands of children annually.
- Cost Savings: A polio-free world could save the global economy billions of dollars in healthcare costs.
- Public Health Milestone: Eradicating polio would mark one of history's greatest public health achievements, proving that determination and collaboration can conquer a disease.
- Protect Future Generations: Eradication efforts protect children worldwide from a potentially life-altering disease and build on a legacy of public health progress.

Rotary International has spent more than $2.6 billion towards polio eradication efforts, including matching funds from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, since launching its PolioPlus program in 1985. Through its partnership in the Global Polio Eradication Initiative, Rotary has helped reduce polio cases by over 99.9% and has protected billions of children from the disease.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Chase Calloway

Chase Calloway is 41 years old and a graduate of Elkhart High School. He has been a business owner since 2013, and today I operates several businesses here in East Texas. My wife, Sandy, and I run Shear Perfection Salon together, and I also own other ventures ranging from retail to real estate. Back in 2011, when Chase first got on Facebook while selling cars at All-Star Ford, he realized the power of social media and have used it ever since to grow every business I've been a part of. That experience eventually led me to create Journey HQ, an automotive content brand that has grown into a large online community. Through all of these projects, my goal has been to combine entrepreneurship, creativity, and community. Sandy and I live here with our three cats, and we're proud to call East Texas home.

McGINNIS FARM PROGRAM

Braden and Jordan McInnis

Braden and Jordan McInnis are first-generation farmers from Anderson County, Texas, recognized for their agricultural success and advocacy for the farming industry. They won the Texas Farm Bureau's Young Farmer & Rancher contest in 2019 and went on to win the national American Farm Bureau Federation Achievement Award in 2020. Their operation includes growing corn, wheat, cotton, soybeans, grain sorghum, and hay, raising cattle, and offering commercial spray applicator services and timber clearing. Jordan also works as an agricultural science teacher at Elkhart High School. Their dedication and success in farming earned them top honors in both the Texas and national Young Farmer & Rancher competitions.

Palestine Regional Medical Center

Melissa has been a Labor and Delivery nurse for 31 years and serves as the Maternal Child Health Director at Palestine Regional Medical Center. She is certified in Inpatient Obstetric Nursing and Electronic Fetal Monitoring. She is currently serving as the Maternal and Neonatal Program Manager at Palestine Regional and is integrally involved in the development and implementation of the quality program for that department. She is the key contact person for the facility for the Texas AIM program (Alliance for Innovation on Maternal Health) which is a maternal health and safety program implemented by the Texas Department of Health to end preventable maternal death and morbidity in Texas.

PRMC has become a partner with the North Texas Milk Bank to become a milk depot site with the plan to eventually become a donor site. We are also working with Birth Tissue Donor Services which allows patients to donate their placentas to be used for tissue grafts to help burn victims, those with wounds, and also to create ocular grafts and lenses.

SCAMS – What should we do!

Officer Freddy Nino (Community Liason)

22

"Scams inflict financial, emotional, and social harm on victims, causing significant monetary loss, psychological distress like anxiety, depression, and feelings of shame, and a breakdown of trust in financial systems and relationships. These consequences can be severe and long-lasting, affecting mental health, damaging one's reputation, hindering future financial activities, and even leading to social isolation and decreased self-esteem.
