Victoria's Vignettes

This past week certainly will go down in the annals as one of those unusual times in Texas weather history; #ThunderSleetWeek2023 will forever be engrained in our collective experience. As we emerged over the weekend, we were reminded anew of how important community is and how ensuring others are well taken care of is a mission worthy of our attention. During this past week, some fifty-five individuals and families were served in Arlington's cold weather shelter overseen by our fellow Rotarian Lieutenant Konstantin Maslenikov at the Arlington Salvation Army. Our Chiefs, who were scheduled to visit us at our weekly meeting, were instead working diligently with their respective forces to keep us all safe and secure. We look forward to rescheduling their time with us at a future meeting. In the meanwhile, congratulations to Chief Crowson on his announced retirement. We are hopeful to hear from him one more time, but are thankful for his decades-long commitment and service to our city.

With our newly found freedom, we are excited to get back together this Thursday, February 9th at noon. Prior to our meeting, though, you are invited to join Arlington Charities and our very own member, Executive Director Deb Coppola, as they reveal their new Mobile Market at the Tarrant County Sub-Courthouse (700 E. Abram Street, Unit 200, Arlington, TX 76010). This mobile market will allow for fresh foods to be brought into low-income neighborhoods with limited or no access to grocery stores within Arlington. Furthermore, the mobile unit will bring other services like nutrition education, helping clients with case management, and seeking out benefits and referrals.

Finally, on Thursday evening, you can come and enjoy some comradery at the Rotary Happy Hour from 5-7 at Texas Live! Revolver Brewery. Please come join your fellow Rotarians and use it as a time to bring along potential new members. I have promised to reward the Rotarian who recruits the most new members out of this Happy Hour a gift certificate for dinner. So, let's see who is up to the challenge!

Our club has a tradition of writing birthday checks to the Rotary Foundation in the amount of the number years they are celebrating (or rounding it up a little higher if they chose). The gift sent to the Rotary Foundation goes into a pool that eventually funds our club grants and also earns you points toward your next Paul Harris pin. Checks can be mailed to Sally Hopper, 3409 Viscount Drive, Arlington, TX 76016. (Please note this is the Rotary Foundation not the Arlington Rotary
