“Service above Self”
Universally: “Never say no”

Scope of Rotary

- Rotary is made up of three parts: At the heart of Rotary are the Clubs, which are supported by Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation.
 - Rotary clubs bring together dedicated individuals to exchange ideas, build relationships, and take action.
 - Rotary International (RI) supports Rotary clubs worldwide by coordinating global programs, campaigns, and initiatives. A new theme is identified annually.
 - The Rotary Foundation uses generous donations to fund projects by Rotarians and our partners in communities around the world. As a nonprofit, charitable arm of RI, all of the Foundation's funding comes from voluntary contributions made by Rotarians and friends who share our vision of a better world.
- Together, Rotary Clubs, Rotary International, and The Rotary Foundation work to make lasting improvements in our communities and around the world.

Guiding Principles of Rotary

- Object of Rotary
- The Four-Way Test
- Five Avenues of Service

Object of Rotary

- The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- High ethical standards in business & professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business & professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Rotary Standard of Excellence: The Four Way Test

Of the things we think, say, or do ...

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Herbert J. Taylor (1893-1978) - President Rotary Club of Chicago (1939-40) and Rotary International (1954-55) wrote the Four Way Test during a business crisis in 1932. It was adopted as part of Rotary International in January of 1943.

The orientation presentation will offer information about how to go about completing the items contained on this checklist, so you are encouraged to view the program as soon as possible.

SERVE TO CHANGE LIVES

Rotary Club of Baytown Red Badge Member Classification Speech Guidelines

An important part of your membership requirements as a Red Badge Member is the Classification Speech. This is your opportunity to tell our club about some of the important parts of your personal and professional life – not all the story, but just enough that we can begin to ask questions.

Please review the following suggestions as you prepare for the required classification speech. You should personalize the speech (there is no requirement to include all suggested points). You can tell us about:

- Your profession or vocation:
 - What you do
 - Why or how you chose this profession or vocation
 - Who inspired you
 - Please do not make this talk a sales pitch for your specific company or firm.
- Your education
- What brought you to this area (where you were born).
- Your family (as applicable)
 - Your spouse's name, where you met, how long you have been married, number of children and ages, etc.
- Your hobbies and special interests.
- Other Rotary Clubs to which you have belonged, if any.
- Anything else you want Club members to know about you.
- What you will contribute to our Rotary Club.
- Your talk should be limited to a maximum of 3 - 5 minutes!

Thank you!

THINK "FOUR MINUTES AND FOUR QUESTIONS"

1. What are you passionate about?
2. Why do you do what you do professionally?
3. Who are your most important relationships?
4. How do we Rotarians fit into your life?

HISTORY OF THE CLASSIFICATION PRINCIPLE

When a lawyer named Paul Harris, a coal dealer, a mining engineer, and a merchant tailor first met in 1905 in Chicago, they gave birth to Rotary and, by the nature of their diverse occupations, to the association's most distinctive feature – the classification principle. Today, the classification principle, though modified, remains a cornerstone of Rotary.

By encouraging active membership through diverse classifications, each club becomes a cross-section of the business and professional life of the community it serves. Also, the classification principle makes sure that no one profession or business becomes the dominant force within the club.

Another benefit of the classification system is that representatives of many fields are brought together, providing the opportunity for Rotarians to broaden their knowledge of today's workplace. This, in turn, enables Rotarians to fulfill one of the basic obligations of vocational service – recognizing the worthiness to society of all useful occupations.

How to Sponsor a New Member

- Go to: <http://www.baytownrotary.org/ProposeaNewMember.cfm> to access the link and information for proposing a new member

Contribute to your club's membership by bringing in qualified business and professional leaders who are interested in and committed to advancing the mission of Rotary. Together with your fellow Rotarians, you can help your club fully represent your community's business and professional life.

Use the attached form to propose a new member. You'll be strengthening your club and ensuring its growth and longevity.

Do it today!

STEP 1 ENGAGE WITH YOUR COMMUNITY

Proposing new members is essential to achieving Rotary's goals of providing community and international service. As a Rotarian, one of your primary responsibilities is to help identify and propose new members. Consider the following approaches for finding future Rotarians:

- Wear your Rotary pin to initiate conversations about your involvement with Rotary.
- Share stories of exciting club projects with colleagues, friends, and acquaintances.
- Distribute Rotary Basics (595-EN), This Is Rotary (001-EN), and What's Rotary? (419-EN). All three are available from shop.rotary.org, the RI Catalog, or your International Office.
- Invite friends, co-workers, and colleagues to join you at your weekly Rotary meeting.
- Offer an information brochure that outlines the club's history and highlights recent service projects and social events.
- Ask potential members to become involved with a club activity or service project.
- Encourage prospective members to tour the RI Web site, view membership videos, and complete a Prospective Member Form (www.rotary.org/membershipreferral).

Visit www.rotary.org for the latest news, videos, and membership development materials.

STEP 2 COMPLETE YOUR PAPERWORK

Once a prospective member demonstrates an interest in membership:

- Complete Part A of the Membership Proposal Form, and return the form to your club secretary for submission to the club's board of directors. Remember: Do not inform the prospective member of the proposal until AFTER the board approves it.
- Wait for the club secretary to notify you of the board's decision, which should come within 30 days of the submission.

Note: If the club board does not approve the candidate, please talk to your club secretary or board for next steps.

After your club board approves the candidate:

- Arrange an information session for the proposed member, or have the club arrange one.
- Ask the proposed member to complete and sign Part B of the proposal form. Return the form to the club secretary.
- Publish the proposed member's name and classification to the club. The Recommended Rotary Club Bylaws allow seven days for club members to consider and file objections, if any.
- If no objections are received, the proposed member pays the admission fee and becomes a Rotarian.
- The club secretary or president immediately reports the new member to Rotary International via Member Access at www.rotary.org.

For information on membership qualifications, see the Manual of Procedure (035-EN), RI Constitution Article 5, RI Bylaws Article 4, and Standard Rotary Club Constitution Articles 7 and 8. All are available at www.rotary.org.
