

BE THE INSPIRATION

APRIL 4-25

Much love to you all as we celebrate two very important holidays this month. My Rotarian Magazine had a great article by Jeff Ruby who discussed what's in a name. It was really funny and informative and I encourage you to read it. It spurred me on to read more by Jeff Ruby and his article on the Horror Story About A Rabbit <https://www.chicagomag.com/Chicago-Magazine/April-2013/Hare-Raiser/> had me rolling on the floor with laughter.

Thank you to all who made our Essay Contest Dinner such a success. It was truly a magical evening and the winners were very impressive young adults.

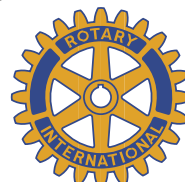

We will be visiting Creature Comforts. Quincy is probably relieved that he doesn't have to come on our field trip, although he could demonstrate his ability to walk backwards underneath Skips legs.

My friend Josh Walker is tentatively scheduled for April 18th. He is running in the primary for Monroe County Commissioner. This is a great way to find out more about what our Commissioners do and let Josh know the issues that are important to you in Monroe County.

Looking forward to district conference this weekend. Please let Karin know if you are available to assist with Breakfast with the Easter Bunny on Saturday from 9:00 – 11:00 at the Scorecard.

Happy Passover and Easter. Please remember that Cell service is spotty at my home, so it is best to reach me via email gruenberg.honi@gmail.com or phone (570) 620-9315.
