

Rotary Leadership Conference Student Guidelines

1. Attendance

- Attendance at all sessions is required, unless ill.
- Students are not allowed to leave Camp without permission of the Camp Director.
- Special appointments: see counselors.
- The program is purposely full, if you have homework to do, decide how to manage it before attending camp. There will not be much opportunity for completing homework during camp. In addition, the camp dining facility is the only study location during program hours. We recommend arranging accommodation of your assignments with your teachers before coming to camp.
- Camp activities will take place rain or shine. Many activities will occur outdoors. Please be sure you have appropriate cold and wet weather clothing.

2. Medical

- Emergency: see counselor or Rotary staff.
- You are responsible for all your own medication.
- No alcohol, tobacco, or illegal drugs. Failure to follow this rule will result in being sent home immediately.

3. Miscellaneous

- Male and female cabins are, by design, on opposite ends of the camp. Students are not allowed in the cabins, or in the immediate area of the cabins of the opposite sex.
- The Dining Hall is designated as the only study, free time and meeting area location.
- Rotary will not tolerate sexual activity or sexual harassment of any kind. Failure to follow this rule will result in being sent home immediately.

4. Respect

- Each other
- Counselors, Rotarians, and Camp St. Croix staff
- Speakers. All speakers are volunteers too.
- Cooperate with others
- Emotional issues: care for each other

5. Safety

- Priority #1 is the safety of all participants
- All students are expected to keep a keen eye out for unsafe acts and are expected to make any hazards known to a Counselor or Rotarian.
