Last Week

No Visiting Rotarians

No visiting Rotarians made up with us last week. However, Jonathan Downs was a guest of Will Coakley.

Missing in Action

Twelve members were absent: Courtney Banach, Joseph Caskey, Theresa Clemmons, James De Vary, Marty Herder, Candace Lansberry, Joel Moorhead, Precious Namazzi, Sanjay Patel, Marques Reischl, Chandra Toy and Kimberly Williams-Branch.

Make-Ups

James Caskey made up at the For Our City Chandler project and on the E-club.

Song Fines & Such

President Chuck Ertl conducted the meeting, Larry Gardner led us in song and James Caskey conducted the fine session.

President Chuck Ertl paid $5 for the work Ron Stevens, Larry Gardner and Soo Stevens-Clarke have done on the Golf Classic.

Brad Raymond paid $5 for Ron, Larry and Soo.

Will Coakley paid $5 for Ron and Larry, and for suffering a foot injury in a skiing accident while walking on a ski trail.

Chuy Ortiz paid $2 for Ron and Larry.

Larry Gardner paid $5 for Ron's work on the Golf Classic and a reminder to get Helicopter Ball Drop ticket stubs turned in.

Ron Stevens paid $3 for club support for the Golf Classic and in thanks to Roger Morsch who picked up all of the balls after last year's Helicopter Ball Drop.

Soo Stevens-Claarke paid $3 for Roger Morsch hosting the ball-counting event.

Roger Morsch paid $5 because he and Mitsi are planning their summer trip.

Tim Gibson paid $5 for support of the Golf Classic even though he will have to miss it because he and Susan will be traveling.

Terry Locke paid $5 for participating in some recent town forums.

Club Assembly

President Chuck Ertl conducted a Club Assembly when we reviewed several upcoming events with assistance from leaders.

Lori Pierce talked about the Rotary Week of Service. We will be participating with the Chandler, Gilbert and Sun Lakes clubs on two different events.

The first is the Welcome To America Project that will be held April 16-18 at 1711 West University in Tempe. WTAP serves refugees who have recently relocated to the Phoenix area through the U. S. State Department.

Volunteers are needed as are donated items, such as blankets, sheets, pots and pans, cleaning supplies and shampoo items. Please bring any donated items to our regular club meeting no later than April 9.

The second event will be held April 24-26 when we will participate in minor repair and enhancement of play space at AZCEND.

Please let Lori know if you can participate in either or both of these activities.

Ron Stevens talked about the Golf Classic.

He brought us up-to-date on the finances. It appears we are ahead in most categories. Four-somes are sold out, sponsorship level is up, we have some really good raffle prizes and we are ahead of previous years in the Helicopter Ball Drop ticket sales.

We have a bicycle, week-long stay at a re-

Program

Piper Reitz, a member of our Interact Club at Basha High School, will tell us about Crutches 4 Africa, a project with which the Interact Club is involved.

And Jen Mozilo will bring us up-to-date on A Chance to Play, an organization that provides all children, regardless of economic means, an opportunity to participate in extracurricular activities such as athletics, arts and tutoring.

Looking Ahead

April 5

Chandler Horizon Golf Classic

April 16

We will have our annual meeting at Basha High School when winners of the Basha Gives Back program will be announced. The meeting will be at 10 a.m.

April 23

We will not have a regular meeting. Instead, a joint meeting combining the Club and Foundation boards will be held to determine the amount of funds we will donate to various organizations at our annual Thank You Breakfast May 21.

April 30

Rick Mitchell will join us to tell us about the Arizona Homeless project.

Program Ideas

Everyone meets someone during their daily life that has an interesting story to tell. Talk to them and see if they would be willing to tell us about it and then contact Lori Pierce for a presentation date.

Thought for the Day

April brings the primrose sweet,

Scatters daisies at our feet.

THE FOUR WAY TEST
of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

sort, a car donated by Earnhardt for a Hole-in-One on a par three, closest-to-the-pin prize on another par three and several other items. Raffle tickets will be sold up until the event begins, the winners will be drawn while the event is being staged so the winners can be announced when the golfers come in.

Larry Gardner talked about the Helicopter Ball Drop, reminding everyone to get their ticket stubs in (today if possible) so balls can be set aside for the event.

More tickets are available and will be until the Golf Classic starts Saturday morning.

The main item we still need is manpower. Several members will be out-of-town this weekend, so the rest of us need to step forward and pick up the slack. If you haven't already done so, let Ron know today where you can help.

SONGS, FINES & SUCH

Lori Pierce paid $5 for the brother of her daughter-in-law who was in a serious motorcycle accident.

James Caskey paid $2 because he lost his badge. And James won $16 in the 50-50 drawing.

CHRC Members Complete House Painting Project

President Chuck Ertl, Soo Stevens-Clarke, Brad Raymond, James Caskey and Candace Lansberry completed the painting project of a home at 757 East Buffalo Street last Saturday, as part of the For Our City Chandler project.

CHRC members had sanded and painted white trim the previous Saturday. The body of the house was turned from pink into a light bluish-gray.

Another organization showed up, cleared junk out of the backyard and laid down fresh stone. The project was termed a very edifying success.

The five CHRC members are shown with home owner Mary and her son, John. They were very appreciative of the efforts to improve the look of their home and its surroundings.

Thanks to all who participated.
