Club Assembly

Greg Thornton will conduct a Club Assembly today as we continue preparations for our 25th annual Hole-in-One Contest which starts February 17.

Last Week

Visiting Rotarians

Two visiting Rotarians made up with us last week: DeeAnne Hawkins from Sun Lakes and Tim Schauermann from Forest Grove, Oregon.

Missing in Action

Twelve of our members were missing in action: Amanda Alburn, Garrett Brolsma, Tim Gibson, John Gizzo, Marty Herder, Phil Lewis, Chuy Ortiz, Brent Patmos, Kristel Patton, Kurt Rohrs, Bill Ryan and Jim Torgeson.

Makeup

Doug Hawkins made up at Chandler.

Songs, Fines & Such

President Theresa Clemmons conducted the meeting, Larry Gardner led us in song and Brad Raymond conducted the fine session.

President Theresa Clemmons paid $8 for Riley Thornton serving as our flag bearer and for a trip to Las Vegas with her best friend. Greg Thornton paid $5 for Riley earning a national theater award in his age group, for another son surviving an accident and for buying a new/old truck.

Sunday Etukeren paid $10, noting it has been a tough year, but he thanked our club for its support. He also said he is planning a trip to Nigeria in 2018. Although exempt, Doug Gardner noted $40,000 has been raised for the Houston Relief Project.

Soo-San Stevens-Clarke paid $102 to the Foundation in memory of her grandmother who would have been 102 that day, although she passed away 30 years ago. Tiffany Jones paid $5 for her and Soo packing food boxes at the United Food Bank and also ringing the bell for the Salvation Army.

Larry Gardner paid $2 for Tiffany Jones and Soo Stevens-Clarke shopping for our Adopt-a-Families. Tim Schauermann paid $10 for telling us about his sore shoulder which turned out to be a pinched nerve in his neck rather than a shoulder issue.

Jerry Turner paid $5 for his birthday and something about "Sweet Home Alabama." We sang "Happy Birthday" to him. Jim Hoenig paid

Program

The Treblemakers from Chandler High School paid their annual visit to Chandler Horizon Rotary, entertaining us with songs of the season. The program was arranged by James Caskey.

Their director, Lori Lyford, said it was the eighth time they had visited. She told us the Treblemakers have been international award winners in the world of barbershop in four of the last five years. They will be heading to more competition in California after the first of the year.

They started out with the traditional "Jingle Bells" and then transitioned into "Silver Bells." "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town" was next followed by their version of "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

They offered a new one for us, the more serious and thought-provoking "The Secret of Christmas (The Little Things You Do)." They picked up the tempo with "Jingle Bell Rock" and then closed with what has become their signature song, "Winter Wonderland which they transformed into "Zona Wonderland." As always, it was delightful.

President Theresa Clemmons presented a $200 check to Lori (photo below) and the girls for help with their expenses.

Next Week

We will not meet next so that we can spend more holiday time with our families. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all!

Next Meeting • January 3

Program

President Theresa Clemmons and Greg Thornton will conduct a Club Assembly as we continue preparations for our 25th annual Hole-in-One Contest. In the meantime, keep working on sponsors for our event.

Board Meeting Postponed

The regular monthly meeting of the Chandler Horizon Rotary Club board of directors has been postponed. It has been rescheduled for Tuesday, January 9, at 6:50 a.m. in the office of President Theresa Clemmons.

Dictionary Project

Our Dictionary Project for this year has been completed. Galveston third graders received their dictionaries December 8, and CTA Liberty December 11. Thanks to Kurt Rohrs for organizing the event and also to others who participated: Doug Hawkins, Soo-San Stevens-Clarke and Jeff Clemmons.

Ring Them Bells

Thanks to Chandler Horizon Rotary Club members who rang the bell for the Salvation Army during the past two weekends. Although there were a few complications, it appears everything went quite well. Thanks again.

THE FOUR WAY TEST
of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Paul Harris Fellows Presented at Holiday Party

Our annual Holiday Party was held last Saturday at Floridino's. Eighteen club members, spouses and family members enjoyed an evening of good food, fun and fellowship. Brent Patmos and his staff helped set up the room in colorful holiday splendor. Brent also served as master of ceremonies for the evening. After a period of fellowship we enjoyed a plentiful and delicious Italian buffet.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of Paul Harris Fellows to spouses of two CHRC members: Susan Gibson and Ann Herder. Susan's PHF was presented by Tim (left photo above), who thanked her for her love, help and companionship for 45 years. Ann's PHF was presented by Marty (right photo), who told us about issues he faced as a child, meeting Ann and the influence her father had on him, both as a Rotarian and as a human being. He urged all of us to continue to provide Service above Self.

We were entertained by Mike Kopp, who sang and accompanied himself on the guitar. He also accompanied us when we had a Christmas

Sing-a-Long led by Larry Gardner and Roger Morsch. He even provided music for those who wanted to dance.

The evening concluded with our annual white elephant gift exchange, although it was conducted in a different format, breaking into two groups and using dice to determine the rotation of gifts. Newest member Terry Locke wound up with the rubber chicken and the admonition to bring it back as a gift next year.

SONGS, FINES & SUCH

$2 for a trip to Prescott and attending the Prescott Pops Orchestra Christmas Concert. His daughter, Joy, plays flute and piccolo with the orchestra.

Cory Whyte paid $6 for his table of guests. Jim Patmos paid $3 for our guests and the Treblemakers. Terry Locke paid $2 and James Caskey $1 for the Treblemakers. Ron Stevens paid for noting although the faces change as members of the Treblemakers move on and graduate, the sweet sound remains the same.

There was no 50-50 drawing.
