Last Week

Visiting Rotarians

Two visiting Rotarians made up with us last week: Mark Thompson from Bismarck Far West, North Dakota; and Bruce Dransfeldt from Portland Central East, Oregon. In addition, Scott Lawless was a guest of James Caskey; and speaker Jennifer Bertoldo brought along her mom, Pat.

Missing in Action

Nine of our members were missing in action: Amanda Alburn, Garrett Brolsma, Sunday Etukeren, John Gizzo, Roger Morsch, Brent Patmos, Kristel Patton, Bill Ryan and Soo-San Stevens-Clarke.

Makeups

Soo-San Stevens-Clarke made up at Wilmette Harbor, Illinois; and Terry Locke, Brent Patmos, Kristel Patton and Bill Ryan all made up at the Hole-in-One Contest.

Songs, Fines & Such

President Theresa Clemmons conducted the meeting, Larry Gardner led us in song and James Caskey conducted the fine session.

Kurt Rohrs was late.

President Theresa Clemmons paid for the support of the club in our Hole-in-One Contest, for messing up her foot so she couldn't participate in the Women's Shootout and for Jeff's birthday. Ron Stevens paid for his and Chris's 53rd anniversary.

Bruce Dransfeldt paid for some help from Ron and because it was moving day (to his and Jean's new home). Tiffany Jones paid $5 for an update on the progress of Soo-San Stevens-Clarke's grandbaby.

Chuy Ortiz paid $2 for the success of the Hole-in-One Contest. Jerry Turner paid $5 for notching a hole-in-one in qualifying and he added a buck for potential new member Scott Lawless.

Board Meeting

The Board of Directors will hold its regular monthly meeting next Tuesday, March 13, at 6:50 a.m. in the office of President Theresa Clemmons.

Program

Jennifer Bertoldo from Devils Doing Good joined us to tell us about that organization, which she and her husband, Kevin, started in 2015. She was introduced by Ron Stevens.

Jennifer first met Soo-San Stevens-Clarke at a civic event, and eventually was introduced to Ron and Marty Herder. Jennifer has worked closely with Ron and Marty on the marketing side of our Hole-in-One Contest, helping set up our website and doing what she can to promote the event.

In addition to Jennifer and Kevin, Devils Doing Good has two additional board members. All are ASU alums. Jennifer told us their goal is to put the community first with an emphasis on smaller charities. They provide an opportunity to come together to raise money.

Their first client was the Chandler Care Center which works through the Chandler Unified School District to operate a food bank to help families, especially during the summer. The Care Center has branched off to include medical and dental care.

Devils Doing Good helped the Care Center host an event that mostly involved raffle tables. They also have partnered with Chandler Lifestyle.

Last year DDG helped I.C.A.N. with the Henry Salinas Society. Named for I.C.A.N.'s founder, the Society raises money that will go back into the community.

Program

Jerry Turner will introduce Martha Brown from the Chandler Unified School District who will tell us about the Families In Transition (FIT) program which aids homeless youth.

Hole-in-One Contest

Blessed with good weather throughout most of the event, the Chandler Horizon Rotary Club's 25th annual Hole-in-One Contest came to a close Sunday with Joe Yanes from Chandler crowned champion. He didn't get a hole-in-one to win $100,000, but his shot was 5'8³/₄" from the 155-yard pin and he won the first alternate prize of $5,000.

Jerry Farrer from Phoenix finished second at 7'9" and he earned $2,500. Our own Jerry Turner was third at 15'4¹/₂" and he pocketed $1,000. Both Jerrys had holes-in-one in qualifying.

Joe Yanes was one of nine golfers who qualified from the semifinals into the overall finals. We had 155 semifinal qualifiers over eight days and 20 shooters in the finals. We had 10 shots in the Women's Shootout.

Melissa Bomar put her tee shot 13'5" from the 135-yard pin to win the $20,000 Women's Shootout and earn $500. After 25 years, we still are looking for our first hole-in-one of any kind in the finals.

President Theresa Clemmons won the 50-50 pot which grew to $1,146 by Sunday. She will collect $573. A second prize was added to the 50 -50 drawing. Iggy Calalang won a $100 gift certificate to Bitzee Mama's, a Mexican restaurant in Glendale.

The 50-50 drawing was higher than ever by quite a bit. And the Silent Auction, which was much more extensive this year, should bring in some good numbers. That should help offset the fact we were quite a bit short on sponsor money this year.

That and the fact we had a good turnout of shooters, despite one windy day and another that was quite breezy. Preliminary reports indicate we are in fifth place overall for the 25 years in terms of shooter money raised.

We had 236 shooters this year, compared with 177 in 2017 when we had one less day of qualifying. The 236 included 145 new shooters. We had 32 female shooters this year, 19 of them new. We thank all of our shooters for their participation.

Special thanks to President Theresa Clemmons, her husband Jeff, Golf Committee Chair Greg
