Program

Suzy Varga, Chandler Fire Department Battalion Chief, will talk about "Health and Medical Preparedness Training for Chandler Citizens."

Last Week

Visiting Rotarians

Two visiting Rotarians made up with us: Mark Thompson from Bismarck Far West, North Dakota; and Bruce Dransfeldt from Portland Central East, Oregon. In addition, Kristin Lindsey and Jeff Clemmons were guests of President Theresa Clemmons; Mary Kay Patmos was a guest of Jim; and Chad Ericson was a guest of James Caskey.

Missing in Action

Eleven of our members were missing in action: Amanda Alburn, Garrett Brolsma, Sunday Etukeren, John Gizzo, Marty Herder, Tiffany Jones, Roger Morsch, Kurt Rohrs, Bill Ryan, Soo-San Stevens-Clarke and Jim Torgeson.

Makeups

Tim Gibson made up at the Polio Immunization Day in Mexico; and Garrett Brolsma, Tim Gibson, Roger Morsch, Brent Patmos, Kristel Patton and Bill Ryan made up at the Hole-in-One Contest.

Songs, Fines & Such

President Theresa Clemmons conducted the meeting, Larry Gardner led us in song and James Caskey conducted the fine session.

Doug Gardner won the Exempt badge after weak bidding. He paid $7 for it and then added $3 for the Hole-in-One Contest.

Kristel Patton was late. Kristel also forgot her Rotary pin as did Cory Whyte. Kristel added $5 for the Hole-in-One and for Ainsley reaching her goal selling Girl Scout cookies.

President Theresa took a step for winning the 50-50 drawing at the Hole-in-One Contest and in appreciation for the help of everyone during the event. Jeff Clemmons paid $10 for his enjoyment working at the event and for stress being eased for Theresa, Greg Thornton and Jim Hoenig.

Jerry Turner paid $15 because his granddaughter turned 10, his son turned 43, and for getting a hole-in-one in qualifying and finishing third in the overall finals. Overall winner Jerry Farrer said how impressed he was with our club and our event, and he donated $200 of his winnings back to the club.

Program

Terry Locke and Tim Gibson told us about their trip to Caborca, Sonora, Mexico, February 23-25 to participate in a Polio Immunization Day. They were joined by 49 other Rotarians from Arizona, Alabama, Louisiana, Nevada, California and Canada.

They traveled by bus and had no trouble heading down, but were stopped five times on the return trip. "The authorities came on the bus and seemed to be looking for someone or something," Tim said. Despite the delays, Tim said there was a lot of camaraderie.

They were taken to a Rotary compound in Caborca, which is a farming community located about 90 miles southeast of Rocky Point. "The natives grow primarily asparagus and grapes," Terry said.

Tim, Terry and the others were taken to a small Please continue reading on page 2

Hole-in-One Contest

President Theresa Clemmons presented checks to the winners of our 25th annual Hole-in-One Contest last week. They were: Joe Yanes, Overall winner, $5,000; Jerry Farrer, second place, $2,500; Jerry Turner, third place, $1,000; and Women's Shootout winner Melissa Bomar, $500.

We were happy to have the winners attend our weekly meeting to better see how Rotary in general, and Chandler Horizon in particular, operates. Pres. Theresa said she also is looking for input from our members about this year's event.

Congratulations

Next Week

Opening Exercises

- Pledge: Kurt Rohrs
- Prayer: Greg Thornton
- Songs: Larry Gardner
- Sgt.-at-Arms: James Caskey

Program

Terry Locke will introduce Katie Kahle, Director of the Chandler Care Center, who will tell us about that organization.

College Scholarship

Jerry Turner (right) presented a $250 scholarship check on behalf of the Chandler Horizon Rotary Club to Arvin Arasteh (second from left) last week. The Chandler Gilbert Community College student is a member of the National Honor Society and Phi Beta Kappa. He is majoring in computer science with a minor in pre-health. He was accompanied by Ekaterina Yodis and Ryan Cain (left), Director of Student Success at CGCC.

Board Meeting

The Board of Directors held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday.

The board reviewed the club financials and discussed the problem of members who are delinquent in their dues payments as well as the problem of members who have paid their dues but basically never attend our weekly meetings or work on projects. The board agreed to move forward with plans to rectify these problems.

The board heard a financial report on our 25th annual Hole-in-One Contest. There still is some money to come in both in sponsorships and payment for Silent Auction items. But there are also some expenses that have not been paid. It is estimated that we will be somewhere around $5,000 short of last year, which was a down year.

A joint meeting of the club and Foundation boards will be scheduled soon to determine which organizations will receive funds and how much. Board members agreed some cuts will have to be made, both in terms of recipient organizations and the amounts that will be given to each. If you have not filled out President Theresa Clemmons' survey regarding these issues, please do so and return it to her today.

THE FOUR WAY TEST
of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?

village about 30 miles from Caborea where they went door-to-door to administer the drops of vaccine. "The kids fought," Tim said, "which is understandable." They were able to vaccinate approximately 150 children.

Back in the compound, the Rotarians enjoyed good food and fellowship with their hosts. Terry showed photos of youngsters suffering from polio. Approximately $15,000 was raised for the event, including donations from Chandler Horizon club members and the Chandler Horizon Rotary Foundation.

The board agreed to split the cost of the Thank You Breakfast with the Foundation.

It was emphasized that we need to obtain more sponsors next year, particularly a Signature Sponsor. Pres. Theresa said we will start earlier next year in seeking sponsors.

We will be sending two students from Chandler High, Russell Duffy and Isaac Parra, to RYLA in Heber April 5-8.

Most of it will be used to establish a pediatric clinic.

Noting how poor the people are there, Tim noted, "They have no money, but they all have TVs and cell phones."

Jerry Farrer, to come out and shoot and for his success, and for Riley getting hired by the Hale Theater in Gilbert. Terry Locke paid $2 for his enjoyment at the Hole-in-One and for Riley drawing President Theresa's winning ticket in the 50-50 raffle.

Cory Whyte paid $10, Chuy Ortiz $5 and Jim Patmos $2 for the success of the Hole-in-One Contest. James Caskey paid because he had to miss the finals on Sunday.

Bruce Dransfeldt paid $2 because he and Jean have moved into their new home and, although his loyalty is to his home club of Portland Central East, he feels it is an honor to be part of our club. Ron Stevens paid because he wants to nominate Jeff Clemmons and Kristin Lindsey as honorary members of our club.

And Mary Kay Patmos won $13 in the 50-50 drawing which she donated back to the club.
