Program

Sean O'Neil, President of Remember Media, and founder and CEO of Memory Dynamics, Inc., will join us today to tell us how we can increase our own memory power.

Last Week

Visiting Rotarians

Two visiting Rotarians made up with us last week: Tim Schauermaun from Forest Grove, Oregon; and Bruce Dransfeldt from Portland Central East, Oregon. Bruce brought Jeanne along with him. In addition Ainsley Alzaga was a guest of Kristel Patton; and Edo Etukeren was a guest of Sunday, who also brought along his uncle, Dr. Nkop Etukeren and his wife, Eno.

Missing in Action

Thirteen of our members were missing in action: President Theresa Clemmons, Amanda Alburn, Garrett Brolsma, James Caskey, John Gizzo, Doug Hawkins, Marty Herder, Tiffany Jones, Scott Lawless, Jim Patmos, Bill Ryan, Soo-San Stevens-Clarke and Greg Thornton.

Makeup

Soo-San Stevens-Clarke made up at Wilmette Harbor, Illinois; Tiffany Jones at the Club Leadership Academy; and Bill Ryan on the cyber club.

Songs, Fines & Such

In the absence of President Theresa Clemmons, Past President Roger Morsch conducted the meeting, Larry Gardner led us in song and Brad Raymond conducted the fine session.

Roger Morsch won the Exempt badge after no one would bid higher than the $15 he offered.

Kristel Patton paid $8 for Steve Hewitt opening several day camps while the teachers were on strike and for Ainsley's seventh birthday May 15. We sang "Happy Birthday" to her.

Ron Stevens paid for the work done by Doug Gardner installing the plaque at the Lee Barnes Memorial Tree. Doug paid $5 for Ron organizing the memorial service and in memory of Lee.

Sunday Etukeren paid $10 for recent trips to Nigeria, for his aunt and uncle visiting (his uncle is a former missionary in Russia), for his son graduating from college and getting married in December, and in thanks for the support of our club.

Tim Gibson paid $2 for Sunday making the meeting and bringing part of his family with him. Brad Raymond paid a happy and sad buck: happy

Tim Aalbo Presents Program on Rotary 4-Way Test for Second Graders

Tim Aalbo presented a program on a book he wrote helping to explain the Rotary 4-Way Test to second graders. He was introduced by Bruce Dransfeldt.

An 18-year Rotary veteran in the Seattle area and California, and finally in Tucson for his last three years, Tim wanted to bring the 4-Way Test in front of youngsters at an early age, so they can begin to follow its tenets. The book is entitled "The Goober Guys," and is about a family whose names all begin with G.

Tim handed out a fact sheet about the Rotary Four Way Test Program, explaining how to get it set up in schools and a plan to follow to make it successful. "The object of the Four Way Test Program is to teach second graders how to use this decision-making tool and encourage them to incorporate it into their own lives," he said. "This will help them in the future to make honest, fair decisions that build goodwill and friendships and are beneficial to all concerned."

He handed out a Policies and Procedures manual to better explain the process. For each second grade classroom a group of usually three Rotarian volunteers spend one hour per week for four consecutive weeks teaching the kids the 4-Way Test, utilizing "The Goober Guys" story/coloring book. He said it worked best to schedule the program right before lunch so the Rotarians can eat lunch with the kids and further explain the 4-Way Test.

A different question is studied each week, with the final week also devoted to a small graduation ceremony. The kids help make a badge with the 4-Way Test printed on it, and they make a poster-sized version of the 4-Way Test to be displayed at home.

Tim had a few copies of the book to view, one of which was printed in Spanish. He talked about some of the features in the book and showed pages that kids can color in. They cost about $5 each.

He passed along some tips if we would be interested in scheduling the program in any Chandler school. They did all the second grade classes in a particular school, one at a time, which stretched out the program over about a six-month period. Tim offered to help us get started if we decided to follow through with the program.

Board Meeting

The Chandler Horizon Rotary Club board of directors held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday. The board discussed dues statements that are past due, and also member attendance and/or participation. With a new Rotary year approaching, the board voted to notify members who are delinquent in dues payments as well as those who have not been attending meetings or participating in club activities. If these matters are not corrected, said members may be terminated.

There was discussion about RYLA students and the necessity of students we sponsor to the RYLA camp to return and provide information on their experiences. The two students who attended this year did not show up last week to tell us about their adventures.

The board viewed Doug Hawkins' proposal for a new membership application. There also was discussion about the process of admitting new members. Doug is working on a new membership packet that will explain expectations of a prospective member, both financially and on a participation level.

There was discussion about the District Conference June 1-2 and the Rotary International Convention June 23-27.

THE FOUR WAY TEST
of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Lee Barnes Memorial

A brief memorial service for Lee Barnes was held immediately following last week's regular club meeting on the 18th fairway here at San Marcos. The memorial tree was planted near the spot where Lee passed away January 8, 1997. Lee is considered the founding father of our Hole-in-One Contest.

Past President Bruce Barnes and Helen, along with Lee's daughter, Jane, and Ron Brown were present. Each spoke briefly as did members of our club who were present. The Barnes family contributed to the cost of the plaque.

Thanks to Ron Stevens and Doug Gardner, who were playing golf with Lee the day he died, and Roger Morsch, who helped construct the mount for the plaque.

because his brother was visiting, but sad because it was for their father's funeral.

Tim Schaueremann paid $5 for getting called back to Oregon for an emergency Pacific University board meeting to resolve a faculty issue. Kurt Rohrs paid a buck hoping we will remember all the work John McCain has done for our country and showing a not-too-flattering photo of former sheriff Joe Arpaio.

Bruce Dransfeldt paid for reporting "the house is perfect." Speaker Tim Aalbu paid a buck for being here and for him and Jennifer, his newlywed wife, planning a cruise to the Caribbean in December.

And Eno Etukeren won $19 in the 50-50 drawing.
