Program

Our own Tim Gibson and Susan have been doing a great deal of traveling since Tim's retirement. Most recently they visited Peru. Today we'll learn more about that trip.

Last Week

Visiting Rotarians

Three visiting Rotarians made up with us: Assistant Governor Jay Jones from Superstition Mountain; Mark Thompson from Bismarck Far North, ND; and Bruce Dransfeldt from Portland Central East, OR. In addition Larry Sur was a guest of Cory Whyte; Cruz Alzaga was a guest of Kristel Patton; and Kayla Lindsey was a guest of President Theresa Clemmons. Kayla is the sister of Kristen Lindsey and is a professional photographer. She took some photos during the meeting, and then group photos after the meeting ended. It also was Kayla's birthday and we sang "Happy Birthday" to her.

Missing in Action

Eight of our members were missing in action: Amanda Alburn, Garrett Brotsma, Sunday Etukeren, Tim Gibson, John Gizzo, Brent Patmos, Bill Ryan and Jim Torgeson.

Makeups

Jim Patmos made up at The Woodlands in Houston, Texas; Soo-San Stevens-Clarke at the board meeting; and Doug Hawkins at the District Leadership Academy.

Songs, Fines & Such

President Theresa Clemmons conducted the meeting, Larry Gardner led us in song and Brad Raymond conducted the fine session.

Kristel Patton was late. She added a buck because Cruz has started swimming lessons.

Assistant Governor Jay Jones paid because he was glad to be here. Speaker Sean O'Neil paid for spilling his orange juice. President Theresa Clemmons paid $10 in thanks to PP Roger Morsch for running the meeting the previous week.

Although exempt, Roger Morsch told us about his granddaughter becoming a cheerleader. Ron Stevens paid a buck because he wanted to include Roger Morsch among those who paid an integral part in the Lee Barnes memorial.

Marty Herder paid $3 for some assistance from an unnamed insurance broker. Mark Thompson paid because he just completed his 34th year of perfect attendance in Rotary.

Roger Morsch (right) thanks Sean O'Neil for his presentation.

Program

Sean O'Neil, CEO and founder of Memory Dynamics, showed us ways we can improve our own memory. He was introduced by Roger Morsch.

He asked members what they most want to improve regarding memory and the overwhelming response was "to remember names." "That's important," Sean said. "If you remember their name, that's a compliment to them. If you can't remember their names, they'll think you don't care or they are not important in your eyes."

Sean said we can remember as much as we want to when we want to. He said all we need to do is train our memory.

He handed out a slip of paper to each member and the group collectively listed 15 items (tree, flower, cup, etc.) by number. We had a few seconds to memorize the list. We turned our papers over and he called on a member to remember as many as he could... in reverse order. He named a few.

Sean said the first and last items are easiest to remember. He also noted how stress can be a factor in memory. He said we should write down whatever information we need to remember. "If you don't write it down," he said, "There is only a 1-in-7 chance you'll remember."

Although he didn't write the list down, Sean remembered all of them. Even when we called out

Attendees will learn more about Rotary projects on international, district and local levels. The conference is being designed as a Family Staycation, with events scheduled around the three pools and water slide. There also will be drive-in movies. You can register at www.rotary5495.org.

Thought for the Day

Why do they put up pictures of criminals in the Post Office? What are we supposed to do, write to them? Why don't they just put their pictures on the postage stamps so the mailmen can look for them while they deliver mail?

THE FOUR WAY TEST
of the things we think, say or do

- 1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

MEMORY DYNAMICS

a number or an item, he got them all right. As he went around the room he called each of us by name.

Memory Dynamics offers several workshops throughout the year. He said the classes will accomplish four things: 1) increase your overall recall; 2) he will guarantee you will remember 50 such items [not just the 15 we did]; 3) you will be able to give a presentation without notes; and 4) you will remember names.

Sean offered a discount to club members and their families. He noted you need to continue to work on techniques. Use it or lose it, as it were. He also said class members can come back any time free of charge for a refresher course.
