Last Week

Visiting Rotarian

Only one visiting Rotarian made up with us: Tim Schauer mann from Forest Grove, Oregon.

Missing in Action

Nine of our members were missing in action: President Tiffany Jones, Garrett Brolsma, Sunday Etukeren, Marty Herder, John Leslie, David Loutzenheiser, Brent Patmos, Kristel Patton and Soo-San Stevens-Clarke.

Makeups

Cory Whyte made up at the Club de Paris Champs Elysee; David Loutzenheiser at the Dictionary Project; Doug Gardner, Marty Herder and Roger Morsch at the No More Chili Dippin' fundraiser; and Bill Ryan and Ron Stevens on the cyber club.

Songs, Fines & Such

In the absence of President Tiffany Jones, PP Theresa Clemmons conducted the meeting, Larry Gardner led us in song and James Caskey conducted the fine session.

Ron Stevens and James Caskey were late.

Roger Bonngard paid a buck for the loss of good friend and former CHRC member, Mike Pfeilsticker. Brad Raymond paid $5 for a happy Thanksgiving.

Chuy Ortiz paid $2 for ASU's football victory over U-of-A. Greg Thornton paid $5 for spending Thanksgiving in Prescott, U-of-A's grueling football season, and for Riley being able to enter a singing competition where he won $250.

Terry Locke paid $2 because Chandler and Perry earned the right to meet for the state high school football championship. Tim Schauer mann paid $2 although the Beavers lost, and an exit fee to Oregon.

Doug Hawkins paid $2 for a trip to Colorado and an invite to the Sun Lakes Christmas party next Tuesday. See Doug if you are interested. Kurt Rohrs paid a buck for member help with the Dictionary project.

Program

Tim Schauer mann told us about his and Nancy's recent trip to Australia, New Zealand, Vietnam and Indonesia. They flew from Phoenix to Los Angeles, on to Sydney, and then spent two days in Fiji.

With people joining the cruise from all over south-east Asia, "we went through a whole bunch of cultures,"

Tim said. He noted that Australia is Christian and European, while Indonesia includes 15,000 islands and is Muslim with a "touch of Hindu." "We went through 40 of the world's great religions in 31 days," he said.

Tim said Sydney is a beautiful city...very cosmopolitan. They used Uber for transportation. "We went through six drivers in three days," Tim said. Not one was a native of Australia. They left their home country for a better opportunity, which was typical of many people they met.

Australia originally was a prison colony. One of the prisons is now a museum. A plaque showed that 300,000 people had walked in one prison. Coal is the major export to Asia. "Australians don't use coal," Tim said. "They ship it to China."

They visited Kimodo Island, famous for Kimodo dragons. They also visited Bali which is in the middle of Indonesia, known for tourism and consumption of rice. Borobudur is a new temple in the middle of a jungle.

Singapore contains the world's second largest port. It is city, island and country. The size of the island was increased when they bought soil from China and dumped it into the ocean.

"Through social security they have built some nice apartments," Tim said. "There are no homeless, no graffiti and no gum on the street.

Hanoi features limestone and tourism. They turned a former air base into an international airport. They built a large freeway and are in the

Program

The Treblemakers from Chandler High School will make their annual holiday visit and will entertain us with songs of the season.

NOTE: We will start at 6:30 a.m. We will eat in Grill 60 where the performance will be held.

Board Meeting

The Board of Directors held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday.

Despite her current health issues, President Tiffany Jones said she wants to attend meetings as often as she can. She appreciates the support of board and club members during her current health problems.

Secretary Soo-San Stevens-Clarke reported she had heard from the VA Hospital in Phoenix that the retired female Navy veteran whom we were going to support during the holidays no longer resides in the hospital and we have no way of contacting her. The board decided that our Adopt-a-Family program this year will involve only the family of four we have received from AZCEND. We will make plans to support veterans in another way later in the year.

The board discussed the Salvation Army program. Apparently there has been some miscommunication involving the money counting phase, which has translated into more miscommunication about the bell ringing phase. If you would like to volunteer to ring the bell, go to volunteers.usawest.org and sign up.

The RYLA program was discussed. Since we no longer sponsor the Interact program at Chandler High School and the program hasn't been set up at Basha, the board decided not to sponsor a RYLA student this year, but hopes to get back into the program with a student from Basha next year.

Because of the New Years' holiday, the January board meeting will be held Tuesday, January 8.

Holiday Party

Our annual Holiday Party has been scheduled for Saturday, December 15, at 5:30 p.m. at the home of Bill and Sharon Ryan. The meal will be catered. There will not be a gift exchange this year, but everyone attending is asked to bring either children's clothing (boy or girl) for a donation to the Clothes Cabin or blankets and/or hygiene products for the Aris Foundation. More details will be coming, but mark your calendar and make plans to attend.

THE FOUR WAY TEST
 of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

No More Chili Dippin'

Twelve Chandler Horizon members, spouses and guests attended the No More Chili Dippin' fundraiser for the First Tee program at San Marcos on November 16. Six chefs prepared their favorite chili. Those in attendance tasted each of the offerings and voted for their favorite. Amanda Haws won with her Swiss/Italian Chili, Emmett Jones was second with his Spicy Green Pork Chili, and Theresa Clemmons was third with her Vegetarian Chili. The event raised $1,575 for the First Tee program.

process of building a subway system along the same route, all financed by Japan.

In Saigon they have industry, an old French Opera House, Uber drivers, and no corporate income tax. They also deal in shipping and construction, although they are moving away from cars and electronics. In Thailand, they visited the ancient temple of Ayutthaya.

SONGS, FINES & SUCH

Roger Morsch paid $5 celebrating the maiden voyage of his new fifth wheel camper, but he needs to find a new parking place for the CHRC trailer following this next year's Hole-in-One Contest.

Jim Patmos paid $2 for a trip to Virginia, and the Chandler Horizon project in cooperation with The Woodlands club in Texas, re-building a home in Houston following Hurricane Harvey finally getting a mention in The Rotarian. Doug Gardner paid $5 for the article in The Rotarian, for a happy Thanksgiving with all the family there, and for winning the fall Bogey Buddies golf tournament.

Jim Hoenig paid $2 for a happy Thanksgiving in Prescott, and for Lucy, one of his daughter's dogs, for barking incessantly only for Joy to discover a power pole at the next door neighbors was on fire. Thanks to Lucy's barking and some quick action by those in the neighborhood plus the fire department, disaster was averted.

And Roger Morsch won $14 in the 50-50 drawing.
