Songs, Fines & Such

President Tiffany Jones conducted the meeting. We let the Treblemakers do our singing for us. James Caskey conducted the fine session.

No one was late, but Cory Whyte forgot both his pin and badge. He added $8 for having his family here.

President Tiffany Jones paid a sad dollar for her daughter being in rehab, but Tiffany and Emmett were able to take care of their granddaughter for the weekend. John Leslie paid $5 for a trip to San Francisco where he was able to see his daughter.

Theresa Clemmons paid $2 for Jeff being here and for the Treblemakers. Jeff Clemmons paid $10 in support of President Tiffany and for our "amazing program."

Terry Locke paid $20 for the Treblemakers and for selling tickets to the Chandler Education Foundation raffle. (Both Jim Patmos and James Caskey won prizes later that day in an early drawing.)

Program

The Treblemakers from Chandler High School paid their annual visit to Chandler Horizon Rotary where they entertained us with songs of the season. Lori Lyford, their leader, told us about the all-female singing group that held their Christmas concert the previous evening.

She told us the group is a traditional barbershop harmony group, but they also branch into various styles of music, including jazz and light rock.

They kicked things off with "Silver Bells" followed by "Jingle Bell Rock." And then "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town."

They added a new song this year in "Happy Hanukkah," honoring the Jewish faith. That was followed by "The Secret of Christmas," which put the meaning of Christmas into perspective. Then came "I'll Be Home for Christmas."

Lori told us the Treblemakers won their division in the mid-winter competition last year in Costa Mesa, California. They sent a video to Seattle for the Youth Video Competition and they won that. They are planning to go to this year's mid-winter competition in Nashville.

They closed the program with "Winter Wonderland," which bogged down but was revived into "Zona Wonderland."

As always, it was a very entertaining program by some extremely talented youngsters. We thank Lori and the girls and look forward to next year.

President Tiffany Jones presented a $200 check to the Treblemakers to help them with their expenses and a bouquet of flowers to Lori for her continued dedication to the group.

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Instead, those attending brought boys or girls clothing for The Clothes Cabin, or a blanket or sleeping bag to be donated to the Aris Foundation. A total of 28 sleeping bags was collected.
