

Good Morning!

Welcome to Chandler Horizon Rotary

Opening Exercises

Pledge: Brad Raymond
 Prayer: James Caskey
 Songs: Larry Gardner
 Sgt.-at-Arms: Jim Hoenig

Program

Don't hold your breath...or maybe you should. Our own Roger Bonngard will present a program today entitled "The Power of a Breath."

Last Week

Visiting Rotarian

Only one visiting Rotarian made up with us last week: Mark Thompson from Fargo Far West, North Dakota.

Missing in Action

Only three of our members were missing in action: President Tiffany Jones, Garrett Brolsma and Sunday Etukeren.

Makeups

No makeups were reported.

Songs, Fines & Such

In the absence of President Tiffany Jones, Past President Theresa Clemmons conducted the meeting. Larry Gardner led us in song and Brad Raymond conducted the fine session.

Roger Morsch won heated bidding for the Exempt badge. He paid $30 for it. Then he told us about his water heater problems, a trip to Texas in their new RV, a niece is coming to visit, and since Mitsi retired and he had to let two other employees go, he is looking for office help.

No one was late. However, Marty Herder and Ron Stevens forgot their Rotary pins. Marty added $4 for a trip to Las Vegas and on to the Rose Bowl to see Ohio State's victory, and listed gifts presented to his mom for Christmas, capped by a ticket for her cruise to Alaska. Ron added a buck for his granddaughter's birthday.

Doug Hawkins paid $5 because he and DeeAnne bought a home in Rocky Point. Doug Gardner paid $4 for buying a new Lexus, trips to Tucson and Colorado to spend time with the grandkids and for Marty Herder's work on the Hole-in-One Contest.

Tim Gibson and Jim Patmos each paid $5 for a cruise together with their wives to the Mexican Riviera. Bruce Dransfeldt paid a buck because he didn't go on a cruise. Brent Patmos paid $5 because he got to pick up his dad's mail.

Brad Raymond paid for a trip to the cabin. Jerry Turner paid $4 for a trip to Missouri, his son's new job and something about a fake fireplace.

Soo-San Stevens-Clarke paid $37 for her son's

Club Assembly

PP Theresa Clemmons and Greg Thornton conducted a Club Assembly. Most of it was centered on our 26th annual Hole-in-One Contest, but there was discussion of the Multicultural Festival scheduled at the Downtown Center Stage this Saturday, January 19 from 2-7 p.m. Set-up is to be completed by 12 noon. Several members have volunteered to help: Doug Gardner, Brad Raymond, Terry Locke, Roger Morsch, David Loutzenheiser, Jerry Turner, Theresa and Jeff Clemmons. It's not too late to sign up. Check your email for more information and there likely will be more info available at today's meeting.

Greg reviewed the calendar for the Hole-in-One, noting set-up will start at 2 p.m. Friday, February 15. The contest will begin Saturday, February 16, and continue the next three weekends with qualifying set from 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. each day. Semifinals, Women's Shootout Finals and Overall Finals will be Sunday, March 3, beginning at 1 p.m.

Greg brought us up-to-date on sponsor commitments, and Jerry Turner talked about daily prizes. We still need more sponsors and daily prizes.

Marty Herder talked about videos that are available to send to your relatives, friends and business associates. He noted we received a mention in the January issue of the District 5495 newsletter.

Shot cards will available soon. Ron Stevens said there will be email blasts daily reminding golfers of the event. Other means of promoting the event were discussed.

Next Week

Opening Exercises

Pledge: Kurt Rohrs
 Prayer: Theresa Clemmons
 Songs: Larry Gardner
 Sgt.-at-Arms: Jim Hoenig

Program

Doug Gardner will introduce Lois Eitel from the Assistance League of the East Valley that has a program helping to identify and provide help for teens who are homeless and need help.

Board Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors was held January 8.

The board discussed President Tiffany Jones's health and personal issues including the fact she has been unable to attend many meetings. It is hoped there will be better communication between President Tiffany and the board. Rotary International will be contacted to see how to proceed, if she is unable to continue. We wish Tiffany a speedy and satisfactory result to her problems, and hope she will be able to return soon.

There was discussion about the Multicultural Festival in downtown Chandler Saturday, January 19, from 2-7 p.m.; and the Rotary Leadership Academy Saturday, January 26 in Glendale.

Our annual Hole-in-One Contest was discussed, including a sponsor update, the contract with and on-site advertising at San Marcos, plus visiting nearby Rotary clubs to promote the event.

Several members helped count money for the Salvation Army, but only a couple rang the bell.

The Adopt-a-Family program through AZCEND went well. Because we were unable to support the Navy veteran at Veteran's Hospital, we added two more families through My Sister's Place/Pathways.

The annual Holiday Party was well attended by 21 members, spouses and guests. There were 28 sleeping bags, some blankets and bags of clothing collected. Thanks to Bill and Sharon Ryan for hosting the event.

Thought for the Day

Forget world peace...visualize using your turn signal.

Congratulations

27th birthday, time with her mom and an upcoming trip to Barbados. John Leslie paid $2 for a trip to San Francisco to receive a shot. Theresa Clemmons paid for her new bike.

Cory Whyte paid $5 for time with the family at Pinetop during the holidays and his son's ninth birthday. Kurt Rohrs paid for time with the kids over the holidays.

Since we didn't have a white gift exchange at our Holiday Party, Terry Locke brought the infamous rubber chicken to last week's meeting and presented it to one of our newer

Bruce Dransfeldt has agreed to visit area Rotary clubs to promote the event. You should have received a schedule. Let him know if you would like to join him.

Potential equipment needs were discussed. Tracking of shooter payments also was discussed.

Kristel Patton has set up the Sign-up Genius and emailed it to everyone. Please sign up and return to her.

The Silent Auction was discussed and it was decided to break it into two segments: the All-American items will be set up in the San Marcos clubhouse while the local items will be displayed in a tent near the registration table just like last year.

Buckets will be used to collect tickets for the Silent Auction and 50-50 drawing. More details will be coming on those two events.

The Thank You Breakfast has been scheduled for May 1, although the site has not been determined.

Again, check your email for more information.

members, David Loutzenheiser, to hold and cherish at least until next holiday season.

Jim Hoenig paid $7 for spending Christmas and New Year's in Prescott, December 30 marking 32 years since he and his family arrived in Arizona, seeing five inches of snow on December 30 and 14 degrees when he woke up New Year's Day (most snow and coldest temperature he has seen since he lived in Arizona), his grandson getting into an accident in the snow and his grandson's wife announcing they were expecting. And New Year's Eve marking 10 years since Janis went to be in a better place.

Jim also brought us up-to-date on the Sinner-of-the-Year award as we head into the second half of the Rotary year. Greg Thornton is third, but only one fine ahead of Soo-San Stevens-Clarke, who is fourth, but she is only one fine ahead of Marty Herder in fifth. Perennial winner Roger Morsch is second, a comfortable 29 fines ahead of Greg. Defending champion Theresa Clemmons leads the way again this year, some 19 votes ahead of Roger. Still a lot of time to make your move.

And Jim won $16 in the 50-50 drawing.

Kroger Donation

We have received our quarterly check from Kroger in the amount of $48.88 for our member participation in Fry's Cash Rewards program. See Kristel Patton if you would like to sign up.
