Last Week

Visiting Rotarians

Two visiting Rotarians made up with us: Bill Frump from Sun Lakes; and Mark Thompson from Bismarck Far West, North Dakota.

Missing in Action

Eight of our members were missing in action: Garrett Broolsma, James Caskey, Sunday Etukeren, Doug Hawkins, John Leslie, Bill Ryan, Jerry Turner and Cory Whyte.

Makeups

James Caskey, Doug Gardner, Larry Gardner, Marty Herder, Roger Morsch, Chuy Ortiz, Brent Patmos, Kristel Patton and Bill Ryan all made up at the Hole-in-One Contest.

Songs, Fines & Such

President Theresa Clemmons conducted the meeting. Roger Bonngard led us in song and Jim Hoenig conducted the fine session.

Kristel Patton and Kurt Rohrs were late. President Theresa Clemmons forgot her Rotary pin. Pres. Theresa also asked members to pray for her mom who is having health issues.

Kristel Patton paid for Ainsley's interest in the Hole-in-One Contest and said it was the last week to buy Girl Scout cookies. Kurt Rohrs announced that Alexander wants to attend ASU after all.

Doug Gardner paid $5 for a trip to Las Vegas and for all those who worked at the Hole-in-One Contest. Larry Gardner paid $13 for the trip to Las Vegas with Doug, and for the extra effort put forth by members like Pres. Theresa Clemmons, Greg Thornton, Marty Herder, Ron Stevens, Kristel Patton and Jim Hoenig, among others including the folks at San Marcos, to make the Hole-in-One Contest so successful.

Bruce Dransfeldt paid $2 for Marty Herder and the rest of the HIO marketing team, and an exit fee to St. Louis. Marty Herder paid $2 for Please continue reading on page 2

Board Meeting Postponed

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors has been postponed. It has been rescheduled for next Tuesday, March 12, at the office of President Theresa Clemmons.

Program

Mike Sorce, the CEO of LiveLove, told us about that organization, a non-profit community development working alongside neighborhood leaders in the downtown Chandler area who are striving to create change and healthy growth right where they live. It has been around since 2007. He was introduced by Marty Herder.

They serve 120 families. They have plans for a new facility, Oasis Community Project, for which they hope to break ground within 90 days. They hope to provide a large community garden, a landscaped space for families to celebrate important occasions, a learning space where teens and adults can further develop vocational skills, and an area for sports and recreation.

They have a team of volunteers, but no paid staff. They will sponsor a 5-K run April 6 as a fundraiser, but otherwise are funded through private donations.

They also have a food bank to serve the area. They served 1,000 food boxes at Thanksgiving and 1,200 at another event in December. They have built three houses on Delaware Street for LiveLove families.

Live Love works with local schools on an indirect basis. The success of the entire program is based on sustainability, Mike said.

LiveLove also serves globally in such areas as Haiti and Malawi, among others. They supported Gabi Herder on her trip to Malawi last year.

Hole-in-One Contest

The final weekend of the 26th annual Hole-in-One Contest came to a close Sunday with the Semifinals, Women's Shootout Finals and the Overall Finals. After the last ball was struck, Rich Perry came away with the alternate prize of $5,000 after putting his shot in the finals 9'9 1/2" from the 155-yard pin.

He didn't win the $100,000 grand prize (which goes unclaimed for yet another year) but he bettered 27 other shooters in the finals. Linda Wenniger finished second at 13'11" and claimed a $2,500 check. Rich and Linda were the final two shooters in the finals. Ajae Slayton won $1,000 for finishing third at 14'1 1/2".

All three posted holes-in-one in qualifying, where we had a total of 18, the most since 2009 when we had 20. We had 19 in 2008. There were six last year.

We had at least one hole-in-one every day, including four on the final Friday when last year's winner, Joe Yanes, had two within about 10 minutes of each other.

Cynthia Cannaert won the Women's Shootout with a shot of 14'3". She didn't get an ace for $20,000, but she did receive a check for $500. The victory was her eighth in the 13 years of the event.

We had 204 shots in the semifinals, the most since 2012, when we had 233. We had 155 last year.

Despite weather problems throughout the event, we had an excellent turnout of shooters. There were cool and windy conditions the first weekend. The second Friday was rained out, but we were able to make up that day on Monday, although we danced around water puddles. The final Friday was beautiful and the final Saturday started out gorgeous although a brief rain shower mid-morning sent shooters scurrying for about half an hour, but they returned when the sun came out and we had a strong finish.

Final financial figures are yet to come, but it is virtually assured that we will have the best year ever. Not only was money from shots among the best, but when the recent additions of the 50-50 drawing and the Silent Auction are added in, our bottom line should be right up there.

THE FOUR WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

HOLE-IN-ONE CONTEST

Richelle Soto won the 50-50 drawing and $400 this year. She was a member of the contingent from Achen-Gardner who came out on the final Friday to have lunch, hit some shots and, obviously, buy 50-50 tickets.

Special Thanks to President Theresa Clemmons and Golf Committee Chair Greg Thornton for their leadership to make our event so successful. And we can't forget the dedication of our members and others outside the club who were such a big help, including Jeff Clemmons, Kristin Lindsey and Mary Kay Patmos.

And the cooperation from San Marcos, particularly from Michael Rus and Nick Lacey, was outstanding once again.

After the final financial report has been completed, our two boards will meet to determine the organizations that will receive funds this year, and how much.

Our annual Thank You Breakfast is scheduled for Wednesday, May 1 at 6:45 a.m. It will be held at Tumbleweed Recreation Center, 2250 S. McQueen Rd. in Chandler.
