Songs, Fines & Such

President Theresa Clemmons conducted the meeting. Larry Gardner led us in song and Jim Hoenig conducted the fine session, reminding everyone that that was the last day to qualify for the 2018-19 Sinner-of-the-Year award. The presentation will be made August 7. No one was late.

Marty Herder paid $5 for taking the family on an outing to Rainbow Lake, and subsequently sinking a pontoon boat. Everyone made it out safely, including grandma in a wheelchair. He also paid for not getting a newsletter that morning. Jim Hoenig paid for failing to hand out the newsletters.

It was a day to honor outgoing President Theresa Clemmons. Among those who did so were Larry Gardner ($10), Jim Hoenig ($4), Chuy Ortiz ($2) for Theresa serving two years, Greg Thornton, Terry Locke, Roger Bonnard, Azi Dekhordi, Kristel Patton, Tim Gibson, Jim Patmos and Jeff Clemmons.

Greg Thornton added $2 for Theresa setting the bar so high, for letting Kristin Lindsey know her two-year term as chief of staff has been increased to a three-year term and for Riley's show closing. Terry Locke added $2 for Greg Thornton helping him set up an IRA.

Roger Bonnard added $2 in thanks not only to Theresa but also for our club, for a 5,400 mile road trip to Wisconsin and Minnesota to help his sisters celebrate their 90th and 86th birthdays. Please continue reading on page 2

Theresa Clemmons Turns Gavel Over to New President Greg Thornton

Changing of the Guard

President Theresa Clemmons wrapped up her year with a Power Point presentation, taking us through the year, month-by-month. The detailed presentation included lists and photos of each month's activities. She acknowledged Tiffany Jones for her service as president until illness forced her to step aside. We all wish Tiffany a speedy recovery from her health issues and hope she will be able to return soon.

Some of the highlights were: working with the Chandler Police Department in handing out 50 buddy bags; participating in the Healing Fields and Week Without Violence projects; attending the YMCA Prayer Breakfast; the donation of 200 watches to a veteran's group; ringing the bell for the Salvation Army; collecting 125 sleeping bags at our annual Holiday Party; welcoming 120 new golfers to our annual Hole-in-One Contest; and participating in a program providing scholarships to Basha High School students, among many others.

Theresa turned the gavel over to incoming President Greg Thornton along with his president's pin, and Greg gave Theresa her Past President badge and a gavel by which to remember us.

Theresa Clemmons Day

Michael Rus (right) and Nick Lacey from San Marcos presented President Theresa Clemmons a plaque declaring June 26, 2019 as Theresa Clemmons Day in honor of her continued effort in support of the Chandler Horizon Rotary Club's relationship with San Marcos Golf Course. They thanked Theresa for her leadership in helping make our 2019 Hole-in-One Contest one of the best ever, and they said they hoped our relationship will continue for a long time to come.

Congratulations
