Program

Today is the day we've all been waiting for: the presentation of the Chandler Horizon Rotary Club Sinner-of-the Year award for the 2018-19 Rotary year.

Last Week

No Visiting Rotarians

No visiting Rotarians made up with us last week.

Missing in Action

Ten of our members were missing in action: Debra Brown, Bruce Dransfeldt, Sunday Etukeren, Doug Gardner, Roger Morsch, Chuy Ortiz, Brent Patmos, Kristel Patton, Bill Ryan and Jerry Turner.

Makeups

Jewry Turner made up at Rampart Range in Colorado Springs; Bruce Dransfeldt at Tigard Breakfast in Oregon; and Kristel Patton at the board meeting.

Songs, Fines & Such

President Greg Thornton conducted the meeting. Larry Gardner led us in song and James Caskey conducted the fine session.

No one was late. However, Cory Whyte forgot his Rotary pin. Cory added $20 in memory of Theresa Clemmons' mom and for an update on Sharon Ryan, who took a turn for the worse. She lost a lot of weight and was in the ICU unit for a while. She has been moved to rehab and is doing a bit better. Cory thanked everyone for their continued support of Sharon and Bill.

Soo-San Stevens-Clarke paid $35 for hers and Jolyon's 30th anniversary and in memory of Theresa's mom. She also gave a short prayer in memory of Theresa's mom. She also reported Azita Dehkordi is facing carpal tunnel surgery.

Marty Herder paid $5 in memory of Theresa's mom, for Samantha returning from Haiti, and for a trip to Sedona. Terry Locke paid $7 for speaker Lana Berry's presentation, for the recent rain and in memory of Theresa's mom.

Larry Gardner paid $5 in memory of Theresa's mom and, noting the loss of a spouse and Teddi's bout with cancer, how difficult coping can be. Jim Hoenig paid $2 in memory of Theresa's mom and for a trip to Prescott for the Prescott Pops Orchestra concert in which his daughter played piccolo and flute.

Program

Lana Berry, CFO of the Chandler Unified School District, told us about the upcoming bond election. She was introduced by Terry Locke. Lana came to Chandler from Page. She has replaced Joel Wirth who, along with his wife Paula, is well known by many of us.

Lana noted that as Chandler continues to grow as a city, the schools are growing as well. She presented information about the schools and their needs, which are massive given there already are 46,000 students, the second largest district in the state. The district has 5,700 employees and 250 busses that transport 13,000 students per day.

The Val Vista corridor will be developed with at least one new elementary and one new high school. She noted that 70 percent of the schools have been built in the last 20 years. The CUSD has a $450 million annual budget. It receives $14 million from the state for construction.

For being a newcomer to the district Lana was very well-informed about the bond issue in particular as well as the school district in general. She handed out a comprehensive fact sheet about the election. She noted the many scholarships and honors students have received.

Money from the bond will be used for capital

Program

PDG Keith Hooper will give a presentation on The H.E.L.P. Foundation, an organization in the Philippines which we support.

NOTE: the previously scheduled program at Basha High School that will include installation of a Peace Pole has been postponed and will be rescheduled at a later date.

Board Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors was held Tuesday at the office of President Greg Thornton.

The board approved a review of the club's by-laws, with changes to be made where deemed necessary. President Greg Thornton will appoint a committee to make the review.

President Greg noted club members have stepped up to serve as chairs of various club committees. Board members will be assigned to oversee the different committees and work with the chairs in making sure the board and club are kept apprised of each committee's activities.

Club social events were discussed. A social with a tentative date of August 31 has been proposed that also would be a fundraiser to support the Ethenbani School in George, South Africa. Since that is Labor Day weekend, the board decided to have Soo-San Stevens-Clarke and Azita Dehkordi find another date and possibly move it to a restaurant more centrally located rather than Azi's home in Queen Creek. Updated details will be coming.

It also was suggested that club socials be scheduled during months when we have a fifth Wednesday, and scheduled more mid-week rather than on the weekends.

The board discussed service projects. Upcoming is the second annual I Am Project which will deal with the opioid crisis. It is scheduled Saturday, August 17. The deadline to commit is this Saturday, August 10. Soo-San Stevens-Clarke will have more details today. See her if you are interested.

The board approved attending the annual YMCA Prayer Breakfast Wednesday, September 25, in lieu of our regular meeting. More details will be coming.

The board also learned we have received two $750 checks from Rotary District 5495 for two grants: 1) Shelter Box (Soo-San Stevens-Clarke has donated $250 for the $1,000 Shelter Box); and 2) the Third Grade Dictionary Project which will go to help pay for the cost of the dictionaries.

THE FOUR WAY TEST
 of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Picking Fruit

Soo-San Stevens-Clarke (center) and Kurt Rohrs (right) took advantage of Tim Gibson's offer to pick fruit at Tim's Rancho Costa Lotta in south Chandler.

Tim Gibson paid for a birthday celebration in Prescott. Kurt Rohrs paid for picking fruit at Tim Gibson's ranch (see photo above).

John Leslie paid $5 for his daughter's birthday. Greg Thornton paid $5 for Rachael's birthday week which included four days at Disneyland, where his son Dallas announced his engagement.

And Larry Gardner won $13 in the 50-50 drawing.

Health Report

Several folks we care about are suffering from a variety of causes.

- PP Theresa Clemmons with the loss of her mom and step-dad.
- PP Tiffany Jones with her continued illness.
- Sharon Ryan with her bout with cancer.
- Azita Dehkordi recovering from carpal tunnel surgery.
- Kristin Lindsey with medical issues; and
- Nick Lacey from San Marcios recovering from prostate surgery.

We pray for healing and recovery for these and other members.

BOND ELECTION

improvements, including building, furniture and bus purchases; roof and parking lot repairs; upgrades in many schools; playground equipment and security systems. The money will add space to current schools to maintain a lower teacher-student ratio which currently is 23:1; complete renovations; maintain a technology-rich environment; provide safe and healthy schools; and allow for continued academic choice.

The last bond election was held in 2015. The debt is managed over a 20-year period. Lana said they do not expect a tax increase based on current projections.

The date of the election is Tuesday, November 5. October 7 is the last day to register. Early ballots will be mailed out October 9.

If you would like more information, contact Lana at 480-812-7650. "The school district has been successful because it is supported by the community," Lana said.

Thought for the Day

Don't spell part backwards... it's a trap.
